

1. Go to: <http://www.edmodo.com/>
2. Find the sign up as student button.

Sign up: I am a teacher, or a student.

3. Fill out the signup screen.
Use the group code you were given in class. Use your real name.

My username:

My password

Keep your username and password somewhere safe (but don't lose them)!

4. That's it!

Once you sign in, be sure to look around.

Things to do:

- Change your settings
- add a picture
- set up your update preferences
- add your email or phone number
- leave a reply
- explore the menus.

1. Go to: <http://www.edmodo.com/>
2. Find the sign up as student button.

Sign up: I am a teacher, or a student.

3. Fill out the signup screen.
Use the group code you were given in class. Use your real name.

My username:

My password

Keep your username and password somewhere safe (but don't lose them)!

4. That's it!

Once you sign in, be sure to look around.

Things to do:

- Change your settings
- add a picture
- set up your update preferences
- add your email or phone number
- leave a reply
- explore the menus.

You should...

- be respectful of yourself and others
- check in frequently
- share your learning
- read about others' learning
- encourage others' learning
- give constructive feedback

Grades are based on achieving these goals.

You could...

- post an interesting and relevant link
- answer another student's questions
- discuss when and where to meet to work on an assignment
- help out classmates who are at home sick

You should...

- be respectful of yourself and others
- check in frequently
- share your learning
- read about others' learning
- encourage others' learning
- give constructive feedback

Grades are based on achieving these goals.

You could...

- post an interesting and relevant link
- answer another student's questions
- discuss when and where to meet to work on an assignment
- help out classmates who are at home sick