

READING	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Team One	At School Assignments	At Home Assignments	At School Assignments	AT Home Assignments	At School Assignments
	Introduce plot elements with PowerPoint, note catcher, and short animated videos Teachers be sure to practice using One Note with students before tomorrow!	Begin working on the at home assignment in OneNote Notebook. Watch Mrs. Williams' instructional video . The assignment is to identify cite text evidence to prove inferences and main idea of the first two chapters of Charlie and the Chocolate Factory .	Continue discussing plot elements with PowerPoint, note catcher, and short animated videos	Continue working the identifying and citing text evidence to prove inferences and main idea of the first two chapters of Charlie and the Chocolate Factory .	Continue discussing plot elements with PowerPoint, note catcher, and short animated videos
	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Team 2	At Home Assignments	At School Assignments	At Home Assignments	At School Assignments	At Home Assignments
	Students read first two chapters of Charlie and the Chocolate Factory by Roald Dahl	Introduce plot elements with PowerPoint, note catcher, and short animated videos Teachers be sure to practice using One Note with students before tomorrow!	Begin working on the at home assignment in OneNote Notebook. Watch Mrs. Williams' instructional video . The assignment is to identify cite text evidence to prove inferences and main idea of the first two chapters of Charlie and the Chocolate Factory .	Continue discussing plot elements with PowerPoint, note catcher, and short animated videos	Continue working the identifying and citing text evidence to prove inferences and main idea of the first two chapters of Charlie and the Chocolate Factory .