

Ted Talk #1 Response “What Really Matters at the End of Life” -Reassessment Instructions

Materials: Watch the Ted Talk entitled “What Really Matters at the End of Life” by BJ Miller. Refer to the question at the top of the “Ted Talk Notes Catcher” to provide direction for your feedback.

Directions: Create a Word Document to respond to the following question: “List five-to-ten ideas that are identified in this Ted Talk.” Provide each overarching idea you identify followed by three-to-four sub-details about each overarching idea. Number your overarching ideas and use bullet points to identify the sub-details.

Turn in: Save this Word Document and email it to me as an attachment. Make sure to include the assessment title and your class period in the subject.
