“American Teen”
By: Khalid
Living a good life full of good vibes
My eyes are on the grey skies
Saying I don’t want to come home tonight
Yeah and I’m high up, off what?
I don’t even remember
But my friend passed out in the Uber ride
From the city of the 915
Where all the girls are pretty
And they’re down for the hype
All my boys are with me
Going up for the night
But who cares, who cares
‘Cause this is our year
So wake me up in the Spring
While I’m high off my American dream
We don’t always say what we mean
It’s the lie of an American teen
Maybe the end is near
But I’ve been waiting all year
To get the hell up out of here
And throw away my fears
I’m so faded (I’m so faded)
Off of all the things that I’ve taken and
Maybe I’m not really drunk
Maybe I’m really good at faking
From the city of the 915
Where all the girls are pretty
And they’re down for the hype
All my boys are with me
Going up for the night
But who cares, who cares
‘Cause this is our year
So wake me up in the Spring
While I’m high off my American dream
We don’t always say what we mean
It’s the lie of an American teen
My youth is the foundation of me
Living life as an American teen (American teen)
American teen, oh yeah
We don’t always say what we mean
When we’re high off our American teen
My youth is the foundation of me
Oh, I’m proud to be American
So wake me up in the Spring
While I’m high off my American dream
We don’t always say what we mean
It’s the life of an American teen
My youth is the foundation of me
Living life as an American teen
American teenager
And I’ll be living this dream with you
We don’t always say what we mean
When we’re high off our American teen
My youth is the foundation of me
Oh, I’m proud to be American

Teachers’ Parting Advice

James Cluph
“Growth only comes outside of your comfort zone. You are going to be made uncomfortable a lot. Don’t panic. You’re growing.”

Shelli Taylor
“Find your passion and make it your job and you’ll be happy for the rest of your life.”

Bruce Kahl
“Keep your connections that are going to be life-long. You grow away from people when you graduate. Stay in contact with them.”

Jennifer Foster
“Take advantage of any opportunity that comes along. And remember that your mom will love you no matter what!!”

Jeff Ranstrom
“Remember who you are and what you stand for.”
Favorites of 2018-2019

Students do many fun things outside of school. The class of 2019 loves to get lost in nostalgic movies, as well as binge watch their favorite TV series. When they’re not busy relaxing, seniors love to spend time listening to new music and showing off their dance moves. These are some of their favorites.

Movies:
1. “Incredibles 2”
2. “Bohemian Rhapsody”
3. “A Star is Born”
4. “Bird Box”

TV Shows:
1. “The Office”
2. “That 70’s Show”
3. “Friends”
4. “Big Mouth”

Music:
1. “Sicko Mode” by Travis Scott
2. “Shallow” by Lady Gaga
3. “Mo Bamba” by Shek Wes
4. “Thank You Next” by Ariana Grande

Dance Moves:
1. Twerk
2. Woah
3. Dab
4. Floss
Embarassing moments

“Someone shoved my brand-new Nikes into the toilet Freshman year, and the office gave me a garbage bag that I had to drag out my sister’s car, that was filled with toilet water.”

“I ripped my pants front to back and had to get called out. The attendance window and the office aid made me show her for proof to get my pass.”

“I waved at someone in the hall who I thought was waving at me, but they were really waving at someone behind me.”

“I was walking down the stairs while looking up and talking to Ranstrom, and then I tripped down the stairs because I wasn’t looking down.”

“I was talking to the girl I liked, but I was saved by the school bell.”

“I’ve hit a car in the parking lot.”
“Once, I threw up in my best friends locker.”

“I sneak into the teachers’ lounge to get a soda during class.”

“We did a book drive in Student Council, and we took the donated books and just shoved them in a return box for the library.”

“I never got a parking pass all of senior year.”

“Sometimes, when everyone’s sprinting out to lunch, I trip them on purpose.”

“I am going to miss high school and most of my high school classmates.”

Flying

Lauren Vincent has been flying planes for most of her life. She is currently working on her pilot’s license and will have it by graduation. She enjoys flying to McCall for the day to eat at the Pancake House for breakfast. Vincent doesn’t ever get nervous flying and enjoys flying just above the clouds the best. “My dad is a pilot,” she said, “and I hope to be like him one day.”

Taekwondo

For many, becoming a three-time black belt is seemingly impossible. But for Matt Schwendiman it is a certainty. He says he will receive this award very soon along with the honor of becoming an instructor of Taekwondo. “I enjoy Taekwondo because it combines both physical and mental aspects into an art form,” he said. “I’m excited to be able to teach others the same values and ideals that I have learned.” Some of Schwendiman’s role models include Chuck Norris and Bruce Lee. He believes that anyone who puts in the effort will enjoy Taekwondo just as he has.

Art

For the past two years, Sydney Speck has been an avid artist and potter. She enjoys the serenity and stress relief that art brings to her. “I love being on the wheel,” she said. “It is really fun and calming making pots and other things.” Sydney makes many different things like plates and bowls. She even uses them at home. She expects to continue with art throughout her life. Sydney got her passion for art from her dad, who was a great artist as well. One can follow her journey on Instagram @ sydneyspice_.

Music

Josh Gentile is one of the most humble and hardworking kids at Eagle High. He plays the trombone in both marching band and jazz band. Gentile recently premiered his bass trombone concierto with serenata in Boise. He is a four-time winner of the Boise Philharmonic Youth Orchestra Solo Competition. Gentile also sings in Eagle High’s premier choir, Sonous. Despite his success he says that it’s not that impressive. “I’m not talented, I just work hard,” he said. “Anyone can do what I do if they work hard.”
Seniors danced the nights away
Senior couples share their high school memories together

Ben Davies and Ireland Zufelt

Q: When did you start dating?
Ireland & Ben: We started dating during sophomore year on Dec. 5, 2016.

Q: Where was your first kiss?
Ireland: Our first kiss was at my house and it was awkward at first.
Ben: Our first kiss was at her house and it was good considering it was our first kiss, but it was awkward afterwards.

Q: What was your first impressions of each other?
Ireland: My very first impression of Ben was that he didn’t talk very much. Ben and I sat next to each other in class for a whole year and we didn’t talk once.
Ben: I thought that Ireland was so cute, but much cooler than me. She looked shy, but I didn’t know much about her.

Q: What are each other’s weirdest habits or pet peeves?
Ireland: He sighs at anything and everything.
Ben: She always covers her face with her shirt when she laughs.

Q: What is your favorite quality about one another?
Ireland: He has a sweet personality.
Ben: Her smile.

Hunter Riccardelli and Noelle Foster

Q: When did you start dating?
Noelle & Hunter: We started dating Feb. 3, 2018.

Q: Where was your first kiss?
Noelle: It was in the driveway at my house in Hunter’s car. It was a good kiss.
Hunter: Our first kiss wasn’t weird at all; it was super good.

Q: What was your first impressions of each other?
Noelle: We met freshman year and we were friends. I thought he was really funny.
Hunter: We met in freshman cornerstone I thought she was mentally and physically attractive.

Q: What are each other’s weirdest habits or pet peeves?
Noelle: He always interrupts me.
Hunter: Noelle tends to hiss at people sometimes.

Q: What is your favorite quality about one another?
Noelle: He is just the nicest person I have ever met.
Hunter: Her kindness is her best quality.

Dakota Thompson and Landry Newland

Q: When did you start dating?
Landry & Dakota: Fall of sophomore year.

Q: Where was your first kiss?
Landry: It was on Halloween at a dance party. It was a good kiss.
Dakota: It was at a Halloween dance party and it was a very swell kiss; it was Gucci.

Q: What was your first impressions of each other?
Landry: I thought that he was honestly kind of weird.
Dakota: ZOO WEE MAMA!

Q: What are each other’s weirdest habits or pet peeves?
Landry: He hates when people touch his face and has a weird twitch in his neck all the time.
Dakota: No idea because she is perfect.

Q: What is your favorite quality about one another?
Landry: He is super positive and can always cheer someone up. He is my hype man.
Dakota: She is a lot like my mom.

ACADECA

Isabella Mull: She has made an outstanding contribution to ACADECA this year. Not only has she been a role-model for excellence in speech and writing, she has also shown great leadership as she has interacted with the first time decathletes. Her medals this year at competition have been well-deserved.

Nicholas Cantu: New to ACADECA this year as a team member. He showed great growth and leadership through his example to his teammates. Nick also won several medals and could always be counted on.

Nominated by Heather Pinder

ASL

Jessica Cardinale: She is the current ASL Club president and has been involved in ASL club since her freshman year. Through the program, she also has taken on a role of helping the Deaf community, by getting the word out about audism against the Deaf community.

Faith Smith: She has gone through the ASL program being very active in ASL Club. She currently is mentor for my ASL 1 class. She plans to use ASL with her future career as an Elementary Education teacher.

Nominated by Jessica Swygart

BAND

Josh Gentile: Josh is one of the most dedicated people I know. He always works hard and practices the music so he can be a leader for a section by playing well. He is so talented at both his instrument and composing music.

Capri Casos: Capri is the most hardworking and passionate people in band. She puts in so much extra time and makes band a better place.

Nominated by Joe Gossi

BPA

John Houser: He is involved in EVERYTHING! His is a state speech and debate champion, as well as a first-place winner in Java at the Idaho State Leadership Conference for BPA. He was also the first qualifier for nationals from Eagle High last year and traveled to Dallas, TX to compete.

Danny Dildine: He has been immensely helpful and has really embodied the idea of our choral community.

Zoey Foote: She brings herself so much joy to the classroom and she is always there helping others before helping herself.
Mustang Clubs

Nominated by Tracy Harrison

DRAMA

Justin Ravago: Talented and dedicated, Justin’s personal level of excellence raises the bar for the entire drama department.
Conrad Harrison: Conrad’s ability to not only act but provide expert technical support has been invaluable and is surpassed only by his willingness to do whatever is necessary to assure we all succeed.

Nominated by each other

EARTH CLUB

Hunter Ricardelli: Hunter has an expansive knowledge of what this earth needs help with, and loves making a difference to preserve the natural world.
Emily Elfring: She is always super inviting to new people and makes everyone feel welcomed and is passionate toward saving the earth.

Nominated by Sarah Bianchi

HLS FISHING

Zane Rasmussen: He is the president of the Hook Line & Sinker fishing club. He has been very welcoming to new members. He has also organized 2 fishing trips (ice fishing and the Owyhee River) as well as a river clean-up already this year.

Nominated by Tara Kishbaugh

HOSA

Hannah Udink: Hannah worked hard to place 1st in her state conference event: Researched persuasive writing and speaking. It was great to see her achieve her goal after working hard.
Raegan Wood: Raegan placed in two very competitive events at our State Conference, 2nd in Nursing Assisting and 3rd in Community Awareness. Raegan is also our club president. She is focused, driven, and a natural leader.

Nominated by JD Sexton

KEY CLUB

Abby Atkinson: Is the current President of Key Club and has been an active member for her 4 years at Eagle High School. She brings a positive and cheerful personality to the club and is continually looking for ways to involve Key Club in service to those in the Eagle community.
Lydia Busaker: Is the current Vice President of Key Club. Lydia is a committed member of Key Club and provides solid continuity for all aspects of the club. She has been instrumental in keeping the club on track and moving in a positive direction.

Nominated by Kate Lester

NEWSPAPER

Avery Weible: She was an amazing editor who is incredibly dedicated and hardworking. She basically ran the class single-handedly and her work was always perfect!
Avery Woods: She was a fabulous editor who has the most positive and fun personality. I appreciate her ability to make the news room a happy place and her creativity in her page design.
OAC

Nominated by Brian Fedigan

For the Outdoor Adventure club, I would like to nominate Olivia Osguthorpe and Michael Underwood. Both are excellent organizers and been involved in the group since it was first formed.

ORCHESTRA

Nominated by Julia Pope

McKenna Mason: She is our Concertmaster and principal violin in the Eagle High Chamber orchestra.

Julia Shields: She is our principal cello in the Eagle High Chamber Orchestra. She is in the Boise Philharmonic Youth Symphony and the West Ada Chamber Orchestra and will be attending Oregon State University next fall.

SPEECH

Nominated by Herby Kojima

Titan Walker: He was a solid participant, a strong competitor and a leader during his four years on the speech and debate team. He is the only member who competed all four years at the state tournaments and was able to help the team garner three state championships.

Valerie Araki: She competed on the speech and debate team for three years. During her time on the team she qualified to the national tournament twice, led the limited preparation students in speech and facilitated the public forum debaters.

SPANISH

Nominated by Heather Pinder

Abigail Baruch has been the club president this year and she has been very involved in the planning and implementing of the different activities that we’ve had.

STUCO

Nominated by Melissa Stephenson

Olivia Love: A council member for all four years of high school. ASB Co-President this year, so she’s in charge of all of Student Council. Prom committee chairwoman who coordinated prom last year. She is part of many other service clubs and organizations, as well as a track athlete.

Nathaniel Blancett: A council member for three years. He’s a senior class officer this year, as well as our school mascot. He has shown up to every football game for three years to greet fans, support the team, and show his school spirit as the Mustang. He also participates in many other service clubs and organizations and is the best peer tutor for our special education students you could ever imagine.

YEARBOOK

Nominated by Debrianne Hohstadt

Areli Rodriguez Holguin: Areli has been a member of the yearbook staff for two years. Her beautiful smile and caring personality were a comfort to the group. Thank you for your hard work!

Nicholas Stanger: While new to yearbook this year, Nic’s attention to detail and positive attitude made for a great work environment. Thank you for your hard work!
BASEBALL

Dawson Warner: Dawson is an outstanding hitter, defensive player, and all-around teammate. He is a great leader, and people look up to him for his work ethic. He is a 3-year Varsity letterman, 2019 co-captain, and a 2018 First Team All SIC 5A utility player.

Matt Nichols: Matt is the hardest working athlete and student I have ever been around. He comes to work every day and is a leader on and off the field. He is a 3-year Varsity lettermen and is a co-captain this year for our squad.

BASKETBALL

Bridger Marboe: Bridger was the heart and soul of our defensive efforts this year. He put everything he had into every drill and every game.

BOYS’ GOLF

Tanner Helms: Tanner is a very competitive player. He is always putting in the time to come out on top in our events. He is a big bomber out there on the course!!!

Nathan Barken: Nathan puts in a lot of time practicing and getting better. He is very competitive and good at overcoming adversity. He loves the trees!!!!!!

BOYS’ LACROSSE

James Farden: James is one of our two captains and he is a good leader and pal. He works hard to accomodate everyones’ needs, and makes sure everyone feels included.

BOYS’ RUGBY

Blake Crosgrove: Rugby is a sport that requires the whole team to work together. With 15 players on the field at one time Blake has a huge impact on making sure everyone is working together and doing what they’re supposed to do. Without him our team would become unorganized and fall apart.

Kaden Baskett: Kaden is a huge asset to our team. He is the captain of our rugby team and without him we would not function the same. His leadership, skill set and determination to our team is what drives us to victory.

BOYS’ SOCCER

Zane Rasmussen: Zane is the guy who came to practice early and left late. He made sure that everyone kept their head up when games went bad for us. Zane showed great leadership throughout the season.

Isaac Rasmussen: Isaac is an extremely hard worker and it showed every game. Isaac was constantly motivating the team, fighting for every tackle, and scoring great goals. Our team would not have had any success without him.

CHEER

Sarah Andrews: Sarah is very dedicated and passionate about cheer; she works harder than anyone I know and shows up every day ready to give her all!

Lillian Holley: Lillian is the most compassionate person you will ever meet! She is always willing to help anyone at any time.
Athletes

DANCE

Alyssa Goff: Alyssa is a steady consistent member of the dance team. Always prompt, respectful and talented! She is a 3-year member, co-captain and is always willing to put in extra time for rehearsals or whatever is asked of her.

FOOTBALL

Pate Damond: Pate was the back-up QB but inspired and lead through true selflessness and love for his teammates and school” I could not respect anyone more than I do of him.

GIRLS’ BASKETBALL

Meghan Boyd: Meghan helped lead us to our first state championship for eagle high. She was a four-year varsity player who was part of a senior class that went 94-14. Meghan finished the year as our leading scorer, and she broke the single season record for points scored. She was the first team All-Conference, First Team All-State and Player of the year First time All Idaho by USA today high school sports.

GIRLS’ RUGBY

Stephanie Davies: Stephanie is a great person on and off the field. On the field she is a great leader and makes a big impact on her teammates.

Natalie Pennisi: Natalie is a fun filled teammate that a lot of the players look up to, she is always setting a great example on and off the field.

GIRLS’ LACROSSE

Maddie Northcut: Maddie is a huge asset to our team. She works hard for our team pushing us to be better every day. She is very encouraging, loving, and caring for every single one of our players.

Hallie Eriksen: Hallie is the defensive queen and a fantastic leader. She has the greatest heart and wants the best for everyone on the team. She always builds her teammates up and pushes them to be the best they can be.

Audra Deakins: Audra is an attack God. Playing defense on her helps challenge her teammates to improve on their skills. She is a great leader and friend.

GIRLS’ SOCCER

Juliet Grech: Juliet always put the success of the Varsity Girls Soccer team ahead of her own personal needs and desires as a soccer player. Juliet models the qualities of empathy, effort, teamwork, unity, respect, courage, and determination that make her a standout in the Lady Mustangs Soccer program.

HOCKEY

Ronan Cassidy: Ronan is our only senior from Eagle and he was one of our defensemen, Ronan improved greatly over the past couple years and became a solid defensemen for our team. He moved the puck very well and always seemed to be in great position to defend. He was a guy I could always feel confident in putting on the ice to keep the other team from scoring. We will miss him on our team next year but wish him the best.
Athletes

SOFTBALL
Nominated by Nicole Rollins
Ashley O’Conner: Ashley has had countless clutch performances for Eagle Softball over her entire career. Ashley is instrumental in helping work with our youth athletes at camps and with our Special Olympic athletes. Ashley is always doing thoughtful and kind things for her teammates.
Siera Horton: Siera is always the first person to the field, attends all off season work outs and works with the underclassmen to make them feel welcome. She is a good teammate and everything we are looking for in our Eagle culture.

SWIM
Nominated by John Carter
Haylee Buyers: Haylee is a 2-time State Champion for Eagle High School and she accepted a full-ride scholarship to continue swimming at the University of Idaho next season! Haylee was our Team Captain with a 3.9 GPA, and is someone who has a work ethic second to none.
Ethan Weak: Ethan was Senior Team Captain on the Mustang swim team in 2018. He broke what is believed to be an all-time record at Eagle High by dropping 3-seconds in his 50 freestyle race at the District Championships (simply unheard of to do this). Miss our “Big Eagle!”
Luke Heikka: Luke was a Senior Captain for the Mustang Swim Team this year. His leadership brought a kindness to the entire team, and everyone loves and looks up to Luke.

TENNIS
Nominated by Katie Ware
Sam Carillo: Senior, Team Captain. Plays No. 2 boys singles. As of April 7 holds a 3-1 record.
Dalton Riggs: Senior, Team Captain. Plays No. 1 mixed doubles. As of April 7 holds a 2-2 record.

VOLLEYBALL
Nominated by Collin Hartman
Jill Merkle: Jill led our team in assists this season and made major improvements to her game. She is a great leader and made those around her better.
Abby Friedt: Abby is a great teammate and was very resilient this season. She battled through injuries and switched positions and still found ways to make an impact on our team.

WRESTLING
Nominated by Michael Stone
Sean Covino: Sean placed 2nd at the 5A State Wrestling Tournament. He has only wrestled for 3 seasons and had never placed at state until this year. He was kind of our Cinderella Story. He had a great senior season.
EAGLE HIGH SENIORS
JOIN THE MILITARY

Why are you joining the military and what does America mean to you?

AIR FORCE
Oceana Christensen-
I am joining the military to get a different experience and to receive financial support. America means the unity of many cultures coming together and working together to produce something bigger and more meaningful.

Nicholas Bohling-
For the education. It means everything to me. This is my home and I want to be able to serve my country.

Isac Glenn-
Somebody’s gotta defend the constitution. I’ve always wanted to do it, since I was four years old. It’s my civic duty. A free people united as one nation under God.

Brandon Johnson-
I just want to be part of something bigger than myself. I want to learn valuable skills, travel, and earn a decent living. Standing up for what you believe in, serving your people above all else, it means embodying the western values of individualism and striving to always succeed in life.

ARMY
Jordon Stetson-
I am going for vehicle maintenance. Serving our country, protecting the people I care about. Opportunity, and the chance to make a difference.

Colby Klauer-
To serve my country. I want to give back to the community. It means freedom and opportunity for everybody.

ARMY
Alexander Pubois-
Thought it would be fun. Freedom.

NAVY
Oceana Christensen-
I am joining the military to get a different experience and to receive financial support. America means the unity of many cultures coming together and working together to produce something bigger and more meaningful.

Mr. Robarge sends off the class of 2019 off with love

Greetings Class of 2019!
It has been an absolute pleasure and honor to serve as your assistant principal over the past four years. I have truly enjoyed the front row seat during this four-year journey. You have all grown so much! There is so much talent, grit, desire, and dedication in this group. I cannot wait to see what all of you do as you leave Eagle High School and pursue your dreams. Remember to use your powers for good! Please keep in touch and share all your amazing accomplishments. Relish this moment, but remember, a lot more milestones to come. This is just the first of many. Good luck! Go Mustangs!

Mr. Robarge
Class of 2019
Assistant Principal

Stuco seniors say goodbye

It’s nearly time to say goodbye to the seniors serving on Student Council. With some devoting all four years to working on StuCo, saying goodbye isn’t an easy task. Eight seniors are preparing to say goodbye to the underclassmen of Eagle High.

Senior Avery Woods has been on StuCo since her sophomore year, working this year as the senior class treasurer. “It’s been really great to be on the Student Council for most of my high school career. I get to be so involved,” Woods said. “I’ve enjoyed my time and I’ll miss my StuCo friends.”

Being the in StuCo was a huge part of Kalli Ehle’s senior year. “Student council has been one of the best parts of high school for me. I love every opportunity presented to me,” she said.

Maddie Oto was only in StuCo for her senior year, but she is appreciative of the experience. “I’m grateful to have been in Stuco for my senior year. It was a learning experience and a good opportunity and helped me grow,” she said.

Senior Nathaniel Blancett has been a central part of the senior student council. “Being on Stuco for three years meant a lot to me. It showed me how much of a leader I can be. And I’m grateful to have known and met everyone,” he said.

Senior Olivia Love devoted her senior year to working for the senior class council, and she was thankful for the opportunity. “Thank you to all of my fellow members for making Stuco such a blast these last four years,” she said, “I have made some of my favorite high school memories.”

Olivia Fleming joined Stuco in her junior year, but has been a huge part of the council. “I only started Stuco in junior year, but I really feel like I’ve made a big new family,” Fleming said. “I’ve grown a lot and made new friends. Getting to know the teachers and admin was really fun, too.”

While saying goodbye is going to be difficult, the graduating seniors of Eagle High Stuco are ready to make their mark on the world.
Many seniors that attend Eagle High are looking forward to graduating and attending the college of their choice. One thing that all seniors are anticipating is the opportunity to travel to a destination of their liking. Before they head off to college, some seniors like to travel with their friends, even if it’s just a few hundred miles away they find way to enjoy the surroundings with their childhood friends. Others choose to go on a trip with just their parents, so they can spend time with their family before they have to leave home. Even though some students will stay at home during the summer, some parents end up taking their kids on a trip that they have dreamed of. The following tell all about their senior trips:

Ella Syltie, Ellie Shipp, Leah Warnick and Lauren Pattee: Q: Where are you going? A: We’re going on a cruise from California to Mexico. Q: How long have you been planning this trip? A: Ever since spring break we started to look at places to go, it was kind of last minute. Q: What activities are you looking forward to? A: Hanging out on the beach, eating good food and spending time with friends.

Seniors travel the globe
After high school, seniors will face a brand new world while they leave another behind. Preparing for a new life at college while leaving many of their friends and family is pretty overwhelming, but at the same time, these seniors will be moving onto a brand new stage of their life, one with more freedom and more possibilities.

Where seniors see themselves in 10 years

As seniors move on to the next phase of their life, many have an idea of where they think they will stand in life. While this may not be necessary to be prepared for the future, imagining one’s place in the world in ten years can be a hopeful thought.

“I’ll be a veterinarian because I love animals and I’d like to help them. I’ll probably live somewhere in northern Idaho because it’s a pretty place to live,” said Madison Sharp

“I see myself just on the road, living free and doing what I want,” said Dakota Thompson

“Well, first off I see myself with a lot of dogs. But I’d like to have a nice career where I can be outdoors a lot. I’d really like to work to help the environment. I think that’s pretty important,” said Noelle Foster

“I’d like to run my own business, be settled down, with a wife and kids. I like this area, so I’ll live around here. It sounds pretty good to me,” said Jex Mecham

“Hopefully I’m going to be a physical therapist. I want to help patients get better,” said Halli Shaw

“I see myself having residency in a hospital. I’m planning on majoring in biology, and what I would be doing is pretty much working at a hospital all the time,” said Jacob Johnson

Seniors’ college plans

Preparing for a new life at college while leaving many of their friends and family is pretty overwhelming, but at the same time, these seniors will be moving onto a brand new stage of their life, one with more freedom and more possibilities.

“I’m excited to move onto more important things in life. I’m not really nervous about it either, and it’s definitely going to be great have more liberty as I’m going into college,” said Wyatt Flesher.

“I’m super excited to go out and meet new people, and to surf for PE at Azusa Pacific. It’ll be so sad though, leaving a lot of my friends, but I think it’s going to an exciting new chapter in my life,” said Morgan Mitchell.

“Eagle is a good school, and my teachers have been nice and I’ve liked my classes. It’s a part of my life I won’t get back, but I’m excited to start college at BSU,” said James Karel.

“Well, first I’m going to BSU for two years, just to get my associates. But after, I’m hopefully going to go to the University of Washington to get my bachelors in business,” said Ava Coleman.

There are a lot of traditions surrounding high school, but one of the most notable is senior skip day; or, more accurately for Eagle High, senior skip days. Once senior project is complete, it’s common for seniors to skip some, or all, of the following three days. This extra free time can be utilized in many different ways, and Eagle High seniors have shared how they decided to spend theirs.

Senior skip days

Paige Wirta

“I decided to dye my hair a dark purple-red over the skip days. I don’t exactly know why; it just seemed like a fun thing to do.”

Nicole Lopes

“I went to my brother’s presentation at Boise State instead of going to school. He’s a chemistry major, so I honestly didn’t understand much of it.”

Abby Baruch

“I was at the Riverside Hotel for a HOSA tournament. I was there with the rest of Sports Med. 3; we all had a good time and we got to skip all three days for it.”

Avery Woods

“I went up to McCall with some friends. There was still snow on the ground, and we all had fun playing different games and enjoying the town!”
With every passing year comes its fads and fashions, and seniors have been there for it all. These seniors recount the many trends they’ve remembered from their time in high school.

Airpods

“I think, more recently, Airpods have been a pretty big trend here. They’re that new, cool thing right now, because Apple is always releasing these new products and you have to keep up with them or else they won’t work with the old stuff. It kind of just happened, and I don’t think there’s a reason they’re so big besides that,” said Isabella Cano.

Grunge looks

“Before I moved to Eagle last year, there was definitely a big grunge thing going on. So there was the flannels and overalls and everything that came with that. I think it really came around because trends, especially fashion, loop around at some point. Like, there was the grunge stuff in the 90s, and then it came back because people thought it was really cool,” said Emily Keely.

Socks and Sandals

“I think definitely one of the dumber trends I’ve seen would be the whole socks and sandals situation. I don’t get it, but I’ve definitely seen it. And I just keep my head down when I do. It’s funny though,” said Ethan Nguyen.

Name Brand Clothing

“For sure it would be all the name brand clothing, like Supreme or Nike or other sportswear. I think it’s popular because of its appearance, like people would think it’s higher quality because it’s got the label on it. Some people like to flex, but other just go with it because they like it, I think,” said David Pettinger.
