

Answer Key

At my house, Friday night is family night. Our whole family gets together to (as, do, own) something fun. Two weeks ago we (ever, gone, went) bowling. Last Friday we went to (it, an, a) art show. This week we planned (to, for, lot) see a movie at the movie (problem, wanted, theater).

"What movie shall we see?" Dad (want, told, asked).

"I like action movies," my brother (said, when, took). "I like to watch cars crash. (A, My, I) like to watch super-heroes fly."

"I like animal movies," my sister said. "(My, I, If) want to see horses run free (why, out, in) fields. I want to see whales (very, swim, our) in the sea."

"I like funny (movies, nickels, thought)," Dad said. "I laugh when people (eyes, throw, play) pies. I laugh when people tell (super, about, funny) jokes."

"I like movies about love," (her, Mom, get) said. "I like it when a (man, wish, game) and a woman get married and (cars, see, live) happily ever after."

"I like cartoons," (if, I, my) said. "I like colorful movies with (a, be, to) lot of music."

What could we (fly, be, do)? Our family could not choose a (about, movie, night) to watch together.

Dad thought he'd (where, whales, solve) the problem. He said, "Why don't (us, we, not) stay home and play a family (game, check, funny)?" We all thought that was a (keep, when, good) idea.

"Let's play puzzles!" I said.

"(Them, Let's, With) play cards!" my brother said.

"Let's (play, say, music) checkers!" my sister said.

Answer Key

Dad just (live, shook, love) his head and rolled his eyes. "(Lot, Let's, I'll) be in bed," he said. Wake (me, as, I) when family night begins."

At my house, Friday night is family night. Our whole family gets together to (as, do, own) something fun. Two weeks ago we (ever, gone, went) bowling. Last Friday we went to (it, an, a) art show. This week we planned (to, for, lot) see a movie at the movie (problem, wanted, theater).

"What movie shall we see?" Dad (want, told, asked).

"I like action movies," my brother (said, when, took). "I like to watch cars crash. (A, My, I) like to watch super-heroes fly."

"I like animal movies," my sister said. (My, I, If) want to see horses run free (why, out, in) fields. I want to see whales (very, swim, our) in the sea."

"I like funny (movies, nickels, thought)," Dad said. "I laugh when people (eyes, throw, play) pies. I laugh when people tell (super, about, funny) jokes."

"I like movies about love," (her, Mom, get) said. "I like it when a (man, wish, game) and a woman get married and (cars, see, live) happily ever after."

"I like cartoons," (if, I, my) said. "I like colorful movies with (a, be, to) lot of music."

What could we (fly, be, do)? Our family could not choose a (about, movie, night) to watch together.

Dad thought he'd (where, whales, solve) the problem. He said, "Why don't (us, we, not) stay home and play a family (game, check, funny)?" We all thought that was a (keep, when, good) idea.

"Let's play puzzles!" I said.

(Them, Let's, With) play cards!" my brother said.

"Let's (play, say, music) checkers!" my sister said.

Dad just (live, shook, love) his head and rolled his eyes. "(Lot, Let's, I'll) be in bed," he said. Wake (me, as, I) when family night begins."

Answer Key

Aunt Pam worked for a vet. She had lots of stories about (the, with, try) animals she helped save. Aunt Pam (water, sweet, liked) to raise kittens when the mother (very, cat, milk) was lost or sick.

One weekend (Bitty, some, Kate) went to stay with Aunt Pam. (Woke, Aunt, Cat) Pam had three baby kittens. The (blanket, mother, kittens') eyes were not even open yet. (Aunt, Save, Small) Pam told Kate she could help (gave, take, they) care of them.

The smallest kitten (give, lots, was) black and not very strong. Another (one, of, she) was gray and cried a lot. (Not, An, The) biggest one was white with black (towels, spots, open) on his feet and ears.

Kate (three, named, stayed) each one. She called the black (it, were, one) Itty Bitty because it was so (baby, lost, tiny). She named the gray one Dusty. (Aunt, She, Gave) named the white one Snowman.

Kate (purple, working, thought) the kittens looked sweet when they (happy, curled, helped) up in a ball and slept. (The, You, Soon) they woke up and started to (even, cry, open). They cried because they wanted something (to, at, she) eat. Aunt Pam warmed some formula, (them, and, or) Kate filled their small bottles. "Which (stayed, drank, kitten) do you want to feed?" Aunt (Bitty, Pam, Back) asked.

Kate picked Itty Bitty. Aunt (Pam, Lot, Itty) gave Kate a towel. She showed (slept, Pam, Kate) how to wrap the kitten so (to, it, one) would not scratch. The kitten drank (for, ball, from) the bottle for Kate. Kate felt (many, sick, grown) up because she could help.

Answer Key

All (weekend, second, because), Kate helped her aunt with the (mother, kittens, called). Kate learned that it was a (ball, with, lot) of work to take care of (behind, kittens, bottles). On Sunday night, Kate went back (cried, ears, home). She called often to see how (the, one, an) kittens were. Aunt Pam said she (have, gray, had) found good homes for Dusty and (animals, Snowman, something). Kate's mom said Itty Bitty could (soon, cried, live) with them! Itty Bitty would have (are, my, the) best home of all!

Aunt Pam worked for a vet. She had lots of stories about (the, with, try) animals she helped save. Aunt Pam (water, sweet, liked) to raise kittens when the mother (very, cat, milk) was lost or sick.

One weekend (Bitty, some, Kate) went to stay with Aunt Pam. (Woke, Aunt, Cat) Pam had three baby kittens. The (blanket, mother, kittens') eyes were not even open yet. (Aunt, Save, Small) Pam told Kate she could help (gave, take, they) care of them.

The smallest kitten (give, lots, was) black and not very strong. Another (one, of, she) was gray and cried a lot. (Not, An, The) biggest one was white with black (towels, spots, open) on his feet and ears.

Kate (three, named, stayed) each one. She called the black (it, were, one) Itty Bitty because it was so (baby, lost, tiny). She named the gray one Dusty. (Aunt, She, Gave) named the white one Snowman.

Kate (purple, working, thought) the kittens looked sweet when they (happy, curled, helped) up in a ball and slept. (The, You, Soon) they woke up and started to (even, cry, open). They cried because they wanted something (to, at, she) eat. Aunt Pam warmed some formula, (them, and, or) Kate filled their small bottles. "Which (stayed, drank, kitten) do you want to feed?" Aunt (Bitty, Pam, Back) asked.

Kate picked Itty Bitty. Aunt (Pam, Lot, Itty) gave Kate a towel. She showed (slept, Pam, Kate) how to wrap the kitten so (to, it, one) would not scratch. The kitten drank (for, ball, from) the bottle for Kate. Kate felt (many, sick, grown) up because she could help.

All (weekend, second, because), Kate helped her aunt with the (mother, kittens, called). Kate learned that it was a (ball, with, lot) of work to take care of (behind, kittens, bottles). On Sunday night, Kate went back (cried, ears, home). She called often to see how (the, one, an) kittens were. Aunt Pam said she (have, gray, had) found good homes for Dusty and (animals, Snowman, something). Kate's mom said Itty Bitty could (soon, cried, live) with them! Itty Bitty would have (are, my, the) best home of all!

Answer Key

Cam was a clam. He lived in the shallow waters (one, for, of) the sea with his parents. Cam (all, had, was) many friends. He had fresh, clear (bottom, next, water). He had a nice hard shell. (Thing, Take, Still), he was not happy. Cam was (sad, what, cry) because he did not like (him, out, his) shell.

"All clams have shells like (lived, yours, shiny)," Cam's mother told him. "All clams (happy, know, love) their shells. If you didn't have (an, a, of) shell on your shoulders, what would (his, was, you) have? Now, please eat your supper."

(Cam, Soda, Now) ate his supper, even though he (know, wasn't, were) hungry. He kept thinking about where (top, him, he) would live if he didn't have (his, when, he) shell. He might be able to (went, home, live) in a shoe or maybe a (front, happy, pretty) glass bottle.

One day Cam was (shrank, maybe, lying) on the bottom of the bay (when, for, she) something shiny and silver sank to (what, the, an) bottom next to him. It was (saw, an, the) most beautiful thing Cam had ever (shoe, seen, now). Cam didn't know it was only (an, a, at) soda can someone had dropped into (the, back, an) water. Cam slipped out of his (supper, glass, boring) gray shell and into the soda (who, can, kept).

Now Cam was content. When he (your, gone, went) home for dinner, his mother didn't (thinking, swimming, recognize) him. When she realized the clam (dropped, peeking, silver) out of the top of the (soda, shell, cute) can was her son, she laughed. (Only, Cam, Him) shrank back into his new shell.

Answer Key

"(Love, Cam, He), what have you done to yourself?" (her, she, two) asked. "Look at that pretty shell! (Where, While, What) did you find it?"

Cam was a clam. He lived in the shallow waters (one, for, of) the sea with his parents. Cam (all, had, was) many friends. He had fresh, clear (bottom, next, water). He had a nice hard shell. (Thing, Take, Still), he was not happy. Cam was (sad, what, cry) because he did not like (him, out, his) shell.

"All clams have shells like (lived, yours, shiny)," Cam's mother told him. "All clams (happy, know, love) their shells. If you didn't have (an, a, of) shell on your shoulders, what would (his, was, you) have? Now, please eat your supper."

(Cam, Soda, Now) ate his supper, even though he (know, wasn't, were) hungry. He kept thinking about where (top, him, he) would live if he didn't have (his, when, he) shell. He might be able to (went, home, live) in a shoe or maybe a (front, happy, pretty) glass bottle.

One day Cam was (shrank, maybe, lying) on the bottom of the bay (when, for, she) something shiny and silver sank to (what, the, an) bottom next to him. It was (saw, an, the) most beautiful thing Cam had ever (shoe, seen, now). Cam didn't know it was only (an, a, at) soda can someone had dropped into (the, back, an) water. Cam slipped out of his (supper, glass, boring) gray shell and into the soda (who, can, kept).

Now Cam was content. When he (your, gone, went) home for dinner, his mother didn't (thinking, swimming, recognize) him. When she realized the clam (dropped, peeking, silver) out of the top of the (soda, shell, cute) can was her son, she laughed. (Only, Cam, Him) shrank back into his new shell.

"(Love, Cam, He), what have you done to yourself?" (her, she, two) asked. "Look at that pretty shell! (Where, While, What) did you find it?"

Answer Key

It was summer, and Cole and Meg liked to play outside every day. They also liked to play with (Grandma, Skipper, Green), their new puppy. They had to (ran, road, play) indoors with Skipper though because their (soon, mom, ball) said he was too little to (play, just, drive) outside.

One day Grandma came over (try, at, to) babysit. Cole asked if he could (come, here, take) Skipper outside. Grandma said it was (every, okay, from) if they watched the puppy closely. (Big, She, Them) said, "Don't let the puppy go (near, stay, their) the road." So Cole and Meg (what, here, took) Skipper outside.

Skipper liked being outside. (Around, Little, First) he chased Cole, and then he (ask, ran, my) after Meg. Next Skipper found a ball in the garden. Cole tossed the (there, bike, ball) to Meg. Meg and Cole had (so, ten, now) much fun with the ball, they (looked, forgot, while) about Skipper. Then Grandma came outside.

"(Came, Where, When) is Skipper?" she asked. Meg and (one, empty, Cole) looked around.

"He was just here," (said, still, told) Cole. But they could not see (through, Grandma, Skipper) now.

Cole and Meg ran around (an, lost, the) yard calling Skipper's name, but the (empty, little, minute) puppy did not come. They looked (for, in, out) the front yard, and they looked (in, you, if) the backyard. Meg started to cry.

(Please, Working, Grandma) drove her car and looked for (behind, Skipper, kitten), while Cole rode his bike. Meg (whole, outside, called) for Skipper from home. Ten minutes (ball, after,

Answer Key

later), Skipper was still lost. Now Cole (garden, started, skipper) to cry too.

Grandma put the (car, too, then) back in the garage. "Come here. (Found, Look, Cried) in the flowerpot on the floor," (much, asked, said) Grandma.

There in the empty flowerpot (was, fun, were) Skipper. He was sleeping. He was (Meg, on, in) the garage the whole time.

It was summer, and Cole and Meg liked to play outside every day. They also liked to play with (Grandma, Skipper, Green), their new puppy. They had to (ran, road, play) indoors with Skipper though because their (soon, mom, ball) said he was too little to (play, just, drive) outside.

One day Grandma came over (try, at, to) babysit. Cole asked if he could (come, here, take) Skipper outside. Grandma said it was (every, okay, from) if they watched the puppy closely. (Big, She, Them) said, "Don't let the puppy go (near, stay, their) the road." So Cole and Meg (what, here, took) Skipper outside.

Skipper liked being outside. (Around, Little, First) he chased Cole, and then he (ask, ran, my) after Meg. Next Skipper found a ball in the garden. Cole tossed the (there, bike, ball) to Meg. Meg and Cole had (so, ten, now) much fun with the ball, they (looked, forgot, while) about Skipper. Then Grandma came outside.

(Came, Where, When) is Skipper?" she asked. Meg and (one, empty, Cole) looked around.

"He was just here," (said, still, told) Cole. But they could not see (through, Grandma, Skipper) now.

Cole and Meg ran around (an, lost, the) yard calling Skipper's name, but the (empty, little, minute) puppy did not come. They looked (for, in, out) the front yard, and they looked (in, you, if) the backyard. Meg started to cry.

(Please, Working, Grandma) drove her car and looked for (behind, Skipper, kitten), while Cole rode his bike. Meg (whole, outside, called) for Skipper from home. Ten minutes (ball, after, later), Skipper was still lost. Now Cole (garden, started, skipper) to cry too.

Grandma put the (car, too, then) back in the garage. "Come here. (Found, Look, Cried) in the flowerpot on the floor," (much, asked, said) Grandma.

There in the empty flowerpot (was, fun, were) Skipper. He was sleeping. He was (Meg, on, in) the garage the whole time.

Answer Key

Dad was upset. "I can't find my glasses," he (own, toy, said). "I think I left them in (also, found, their) black case. Has anyone seen the (either, black, blue) case? Does anyone know where I (put, find, for) them? I have a hard time (stuffed, brought, reading) without them."

"Oh no, not again," (found, said, car) Nate, Kate, and Beth. "You lost (left, him, your) glasses at work last week. We (where, haven't, doesn't) seen them, but we'll help you (look, black, yell) for them."

First Kate looked under (old, each, all) the beds. All she found was (party, lots, many) of dust and a blue fuzzy (slipper, Sunday, ground).

Nate didn't find the glasses either. (Glasses, Beside, Instead), he found his white toy car (and, or, but) blue toy jeep in a box (some, hard, next) to the stairs. "Good," he said. "(We, I've, Case) been searching for these cars. I (purple, thought, without) I left them at school after (found, socks, show) and tell on Friday."

Beth found (a, by, an) cooking magazine in their toy chest. (Her, Gum, She) also found some old, sticky candy (how, for, from) her birthday party.

While looking for (last, the, an) glasses, the children found lots of (brown, things, should). Behind their desk, Beth, Kate, and (work, Dad, Nate) found some paper clips. Kate found (she, pen, her) new pink bracelet. Nate found a (letter, white, under) from his pen pal, Rick. Beth (check, school, found) a glob of old, hard glue. (Find, The, Said) kids discovered some cards and brought (seen, them, they) to their mom. The children also (found, told, cool) some missing socks, a purple stuffed (upset, behind, animal) puppy, some sticks of gum, rubber (clips, bands, pink), and three markers. But there was (no, at, to) sign of the glasses.

Answer Key

Suddenly Dad (where, found, yelled), "I found them! I found my (magazine, glasses, stairs). They were in my coat pocket, (soon, just, cars) where I left them yesterday!"

Dad was upset. "I can't find my glasses," he (own, toy, said). "I think I left them in (also, found, their) black case. Has anyone seen the (either, black, blue) case? Does anyone know where I (put, find, for) them? I have a hard time (stuffed, brought, reading) without them."

"Oh no, not again," (found, said, car) Nate, Kate, and Beth. "You lost (left, him, your) glasses at work last week. We (where, haven't, doesn't) seen them, but we'll help you (look, black, yell) for them."

First Kate looked under (old, each, all) the beds. All she found was (party, lots, many) of dust and a blue fuzzy (slipper, Sunday, ground).

Nate didn't find the glasses either. (Glasses, Beside, Instead), he found his white toy car (and, or, but) blue toy jeep in a box (some, hard, next) to the stairs. "Good," he said. "(We, I've, Case) been searching for these cars. I (purple, thought, without) I left them at school after (found, socks, show) and tell on Friday."

Beth found (a, by, an) cooking magazine in their toy chest. (Her, Gum, She) also found some old, sticky candy (how, for, from) her birthday party.

While looking for (last, the, an) glasses, the children found lots of (brown, things, should). Behind their desk, Beth, Kate, and (work, Dad, Nate) found some paper clips. Kate found (she, pen, her) new pink bracelet. Nate found a (letter, white, under) from his pen pal, Rick. Beth (check, school, found) a glob of old, hard glue. (Find, The, Said) kids discovered some cards and brought (seen, them, they) to their mom. The children also (found, told, cool) some missing socks, a purple stuffed (upset, behind, animal) puppy, some sticks of gum, rubber (clips, bands, pink), and three markers. But there was (no, at, to) sign of the glasses.

Suddenly Dad (where, found, yelled), "I found them! I found my (magazine, glasses, stairs). They were in my coat pocket, (soon, just, cars) where I left them yesterday!"

Answer Key

Last week Grandpa came to my house to visit. When he left, he gave me (you, and, but) each of my sisters two dollars. "(Him, Tell, Buy) something you like with your money," (felt, said, took) Grandpa.

My three sisters and I (talked, yelled, lonely) about what we could buy with (them, him, our) money.

"I want something sweet," said (had, you, my) little sister. "I will buy gum."

"(A, I, My) want something to play with," said (me, do, my) older sister. "I will buy stickers."

"(I, At, We) want something to do," said my (while, oldest, nickel) sister. "I will rent a movie."

(Gave, We, Mom) said those were all good ideas. (Today, About, Soon) after school, Mom told us some (end, four, sad) news.

"Grandpa is feeling lonely today. (Play, What, Where) could we do to help him?"

(Buy, We, My) sisters and I felt sad for (sisters, mother, Grandpa). We did not want him to (with, feel, play) lonely. Then I remembered that we (take, hadn't, will) spent our money yet. I told (my, we, to) sisters I had an idea.

We (still, called, oldest) Grandpa and told him to put (by, on, in) his coat and hat and shoes. (We, Got, Us) told him to walk to the (late, will, end) of his block at four o'clock (with, and, but) wait for a ride.

Soon it (were, also, was) four fifteen. We looked out our (window, sister, today), and there was Grandpa. My sisters (good, but, and) I ran out to meet him.

Answer Key

"(Grandpa, Because, Lonely), you made it!" we yelled as (cry, us, we) hugged Grandpa. "We put our money (something, together, working) to buy you a cab ride. (Soon, Now, Will) you are here with us!"

That (my, do, day) we all got something we wanted (with, from, put) our money. We got Grandpa.

Last week Grandpa came to my house to visit. When he left, he gave me (you, and, but) each of my sisters two dollars. "(Him, Tell, Buy) something you like with your money," (felt, said, took) Grandpa.

My three sisters and I (talked, yelled, lonely) about what we could buy with (them, him, our) money.

"I want something sweet," said (had, you, my) little sister. "I will buy gum."

"(A, I, My) want something to play with," said (me, do, my) older sister. "I will buy stickers."

"(I, At, We) want something to do," said my (while, oldest, nickel) sister. "I will rent a movie."

(Gave, We, Mom) said those were all good ideas. (Today, About, Soon) after school, Mom told us some (end, four, sad) news. "Grandpa is feeling lonely today. (Play, What, Where) could we do to help him?"

(Buy, We, My) sisters and I felt sad for (sisters, mother, Grandpa). We did not want him to (with, feel, play) lonely. Then I remembered that we (take, hadn't, will) spent our money yet. I told (my, we, to) sisters I had an idea.

We (still, called, oldest) Grandpa and told him to put (by, on, in) his coat and hat and shoes. (We, Got, Us) told him to walk to the (late, will, end) of his block at four o'clock (with, and, but) wait for a ride.

Soon it (were, also, was) four fifteen. We looked out our (window, sister, today), and there was Grandpa. My sisters (good, but, and) I ran out to meet him.

"(Grandpa, Because, Lonely), you made it!" we yelled as (cry, us, we) hugged Grandpa. "We put our money (something, together, working) to buy you a cab ride. (Soon, Now, Will) you are here with us!"

That (my, do, day) we all got something we wanted (with, from, put) our money. We got Grandpa.

Answer Key

I can say many numbers. First I say "one," and then (I, is, me) say "two." I can count very (long, high, how), but I can't count every number. (Ran, Even, Just) though I can write many numbers, (At, My, I) can never write every number. I (your, have, would) run out of time and space (before, grown, until) I could finish. Numbers keep going (myself, forever, spaces).

I see numbers just about anywhere (we, I, a) look. Numbers help us every day. (Much, You, Me) can put them together to add. (If, Two, You) can take them away to subtract. (Scored, Though, Numbers) help measure how long, short, and (wide, can, many) things are. Numbers tell us how (well, much, very) food and toys cost. They tell (we, and, us) how many miles we have left (are, to, at) drive until we get home. Numbers (let, out, tell) us how fast we ran a (race, book, you). They let us know how many (points, helps, number) our team scored in a game. (Measure, Numbers, Because) tell us how tall we are. (Write, They, Them) help us figure out how much (they, done, we've) grown. They let us know what (rest, day, size) our hands and feet are. Numbers (tell, way, keep) us how much longer a cake (counts, needs, finish) to bake before it's done.

What (number, miles, short) do you like the best? Is (he, how, it) two? Is it seventeen? Is it (cold, thirty, home)? I like lots of numbers, but (a, me, I) don't have one that I like (better, measure, dollar) than the rest.

What is your (longest, birthday, favorite) way to use numbers? Do you (home, like, tell) to add? Do you like to (subtract, quarter, checking)? Do you like to measure? There (is, are, to) so many great ways to use (numbers, subtract, longer) that I can't pick just one.

Answer Key

I can say many numbers. First I say "one," and then (I, is, me) say "two." I can count very (long, high, how), but I can't count every number. (Ran, Even, Just) though I can write many numbers, (At, My, I) can never write every number. I (your, have, would) run out of time and space (before, grown, until) I could finish. Numbers keep going (myself, forever, spaces).

I see numbers just about anywhere (we, I, a) look. Numbers help us every day. (Much, You, Me) can put them together to add. (If, Two, You) can take them away to subtract. (Scored, Though, Numbers) help measure how long, short, and (wide, can, many) things are. Numbers tell us how (well, much, very) food and toys cost. They tell (we, and, us) how many miles we have left (are, to, at) drive until we get home. Numbers (let, out, tell) us how fast we ran a (race, book, you). They let us know how many (points, helps, number) our team scored in a game. (Measure, Numbers, Because) tell us how tall we are. (Write, They, Them) help us figure out how much (they, done, we've) grown. They let us know what (rest, day, size) our hands and feet are. Numbers (tell, way, keep) us how much longer a cake (counts, needs, finish) to bake before it's done.

What (number, miles, short) do you like the best? Is (he, how, it) two? Is it seventeen? Is it (cold, thirty, home)? I like lots of numbers, but (a, me, I) don't have one that I like (better, measure, dollar) than the rest.

What is your (longest, birthday, favorite) way to use numbers? Do you (home, like, tell) to add? Do you like to (subtract, quarter, checking)? Do you like to measure? There (is, are, to) so many great ways to use (numbers, subtract, longer) that I can't pick just one.

Answer Key

"I wish I could ride a bike," sighed Mary. "Every time I try, I fall (from, off, up) and get hurt. I'll never be (able, when, house) to ride a bike."

Mark looked (for, by, at) Mary's sad face.

"You can learn (at, to, an) ride a bike. It's not that (slow, small, hard). I'll help you!"

"It hurts too (much, could, more) when I fall on the sidewalk," (alongside, complained, practicing) Mary.

"You can learn to ride (over, his, your) bike on the grass. It's a (length, little, faster) harder to pedal, but the grass (is, are, the) softer to land on, and you (could, won't, it's) get hurt," explained Mark. "Get on (an, you, the) bike while I hold it up (can, for, from) you. You just start pedaling when (knew, you're, have) ready."

Mary got on her bike.

(Mark, Her, Mary) began pedaling slowly, and Mark held (my, on, if) to keep the bike from tipping (much, side, over). Mary pedaled faster as she steered (keep, the, an) bike around the house. Mark ran (alongside, complained, underneath), trying to keep up. Finally, he (just, was, had) to let go.

Mary kept pedaling.

"(Grass, You're, Began) biking!" screamed Mark. "I knew you (myself, about, could) do it!"

Mary looked up at (his, Mark, start) and smiled. She wasn't watching where (she, her, fall) was going. Suddenly, the bike hit (on, an, a) small bump, and it tipped over (if, on, by) its side with Mary underneath.

Answer Key

"It (gone, right, didn't) hurt!" exclaimed Mary. "You were right, (him, Mark, Mary)! The grass is much softer to (team, grass, fall) on! I'm going to keep practicing (until, trying, harder) I can ride around the house (softer, without, because) falling. It's not so hard when (won't, slowly, you're) not afraid to fall!"

"I wish I could ride a bike," sighed Mary. "Every time I try, I fall (from, off, up) and get hurt. I'll never be (able, when, house) to ride a bike."

Mark looked (for, by, at) Mary's sad face.

"You can learn (at, to, an) ride a bike. It's not that (slow, small, hard). I'll help you!"

"It hurts too (much, could, more) when I fall on the sidewalk," (alongside, complained, practicing) Mary.

"You can learn to ride (over, his, your) bike on the grass. It's a (length, little, faster) harder to pedal, but the grass (is, are, the) softer to land on, and you (could, won't, it's) get hurt," explained Mark. "Get on (an, you, the) bike while I hold it up (can, for, from) you. You just start pedaling when (knew, you're, have) ready."

Mary got on her bike.

(Mark, Her, Mary) began pedaling slowly, and Mark held (my, on, if) to keep the bike from tipping (much, side, over). Mary pedaled faster as she steered (keep, the, an) bike around the house. Mark ran (alongside, complained, underneath), trying to keep up. Finally, he (just, was, had) to let go.

Mary kept pedaling.

"(Grass, You're, Began) biking!" screamed Mark. "I knew you (myself, about, could) do it!"

Mary looked up at (his, Mark, start) and smiled. She wasn't watching where (she, her, fall) was going. Suddenly, the bike hit (on, an, a) small bump, and it tipped over (if, on, by) its side with Mary underneath.

"It (gone, right, didn't) hurt!" exclaimed Mary. "You were right, (him, Mark, Mary)! The grass is much softer to (team, grass, fall) on! I'm going to keep practicing (until, trying, harder) I can ride around the house (softer, without, because) falling. It's not so hard when (won't, slowly, you're) not afraid to fall!"

Answer Key

Not very long ago, my friend Rob came from far away to visit me. It never snows where Rob lives, (so, are, how) he had never seen snow before. (His, He, Are) didn't believe me when I told (said, him, he) that white flakes fall from the (dirt, soon, sky).

"When you pack to visit us, (them, made, bring) warm clothes," I told him. Rob (packed, rolled, school) jeans, sweatshirts, and one sweater.

The (long, those, first) few days at my house, Rob (far, our, kept) asking, "When will it snow?" He (little, brought, opened) his sweater to school every day (by, in, at) case of a snowstorm.

After school (into, by, one) day, Rob and I walked home. (Put, As, We) noticed the wind was colder. It (nipped, pocket, piled) at our hands. Gray clouds filled (of, the, an) sky. Soon icy rain stung our (jeans, faces, after) and made the sidewalk slippery.

"Look!" (said, told, taste) Rob, "There are little white flies (all, him, some) around."

"Those are little snowflakes," I (before, believed, laughed). We opened our mouths to taste (our, the, then) cold flakes. Rob scooped up some (clothes, happy, flakes) of snow and threw them at (me, us, off).

"There really are flakes falling from (rain, out, the) sky!" he yelled.

The rest of (you, the, sit) day, Rob and I played outside. (Us, We, Own) rolled in the snow. We slid (for, wind, down) hills. We made a snow fort (or, and, trip) a snowman. Rob piled snow into (the, gray, an) pocket of his warm sweater.

"I (try, a, am) going to bring this snow with (us, me, too) when I go back home," he (snow, said, told).

Answer Key

"Only if you don't mind getting (wet, long, some) when the snow melts," I said.

Not very long ago, my friend Rob came from far away to visit me. It never snows where Rob lives, (so, are, how) he had never seen snow before. (His, He, Are) didn't believe me when I told (said, him, he) that white flakes fall from the (dirt, soon, sky).

"When you pack to visit us, (them, made, bring) warm clothes," I told him. Rob (packed, rolled, school) jeans, sweatshirts, and one sweater.

The (long, those, first) few days at my house, Rob (far, our, kept) asking, "When will it snow?" He (little, brought, opened) his sweater to school every day (by, in, at) case of a snowstorm.

After school (into, by, one) day, Rob and I walked home. (Put, As, We) noticed the wind was colder. It (nipped, pocket, piled) at our hands. Gray clouds filled (of, the, an) sky. Soon icy rain stung our (jeans, faces, after) and made the sidewalk slippery.

"Look!" (said, told, taste) Rob, "There are little white flies (all, him, some) around."

"Those are little snowflakes," I (before, believed, laughed). We opened our mouths to taste (our, the, then) cold flakes. Rob scooped up some (clothes, happy, flakes) of snow and threw them at (me, us, off).

"There really are flakes falling from (rain, out, the) sky!" he yelled.

The rest of (you, the, sit) day, Rob and I played outside. (Us, We, Own) rolled in the snow. We slid (for, wind, down) hills. We made a snow fort (or, and, trip) a snowman. Rob piled snow into (the, gray, an) pocket of his warm sweater.

"I (try, a, am) going to bring this snow with (us, me, too) when I go back home," he (snow, said, told).

"Only if you don't mind getting (wet, long, some) when the snow melts," I said.

Answer Key

It all began when my mom bought Sweet Treats cereal. The box said there was a (sweet, sister, secret) spy ring inside!

"I want the (soggy, secret, flung) spy ring," I said.

"The first (one, he, many) to open the cereal box gets (an, saw, the) prize," said my big brother.

I (bought, sweet, awoke) early Monday morning. I wanted to (spy, eat, when) Sweet Treats cereal before my sister. (The, An, Up) secret spy ring would be mine!

(Is, I, Am) entered the kitchen. My little sister (you, was, will) there! She had a bowl of (scoop, secret, Sweet) Treats cereal.

I grabbed the cereal (kids, been, box). I stuck my hand inside. I (tried, inside, time) to reach the prize but couldn't (best, find, when) it. My little sister smiled at (box, me, my).

"Give me the secret spy ring," (me, at, I) said.

"I got it first," she (gets, said, told).

I tried to pull the secret (spy, you, mad) ring off my sister's finger. My (sister, kitchen, grabbed) got mad. She dumped her bowl (for, I, of) cereal on my head. I was (one, mad, call), so I scooped up a handful (if, the, of) soggy cereal and flung it at (her, she, ring).

My big brother heard the scream. (It, My, He) ran down and saw the mess. "(Eat, Mom, Spy)! Dad! Come see what the kids (done, to, did)!" he yelled.

Dad stomped downstairs. It (all, was, will) early. He was tired. He took (the, to, me) secret spy ring and gave it (as, may, to) my sister. He told me to (would, clean, from) up. Next time we buy Sweet (sister, Treats, early) cereal maybe I'll get the prize.

It all began when my mom bought Sweet Treats cereal. The box said there was a (sweet, sister, secret) spy ring inside!

"I want the (soggy, secret, flung) spy ring," I said.

"The first (one, he, many) to open the cereal box gets (an, saw, the) prize," said my big brother.

I (bought, sweet, awoke) early Monday morning. I wanted to (spy, eat, when) Sweet Treats cereal before my sister. (The, An, Up) secret spy ring would be mine!

(Is, I, Am) entered the kitchen. My little sister (you, was, will) there! She had a bowl of (scoop, secret, Sweet) Treats cereal.

I grabbed the cereal (kids, been, box). I stuck my hand inside. I (tried, inside, time) to reach the prize but couldn't (best, find, when) it. My little sister smiled at (box, me, my).

"Give me the secret spy ring," (me, at, I) said.

"I got it first," she (gets, said, told).

I tried to pull the secret (spy, you, mad) ring off my sister's finger. My (sister, kitchen, grabbed) got mad. She dumped her bowl (for, I, of) cereal on my head. I was (one, mad, call), so I scooped up a handful (if, the, of) soggy cereal and flung it at (her, she, ring).

My big brother heard the scream. (It, My, He) ran down and saw the mess. "(Eat, Mom, Spy)! Dad! Come see what the kids (done, to, did)!" he yelled.

Dad stomped downstairs. It (all, was, will) early. He was tired. He took (the, to, me) secret spy ring and gave it (as, may, to) my sister. He told me to (would, clean, from) up. Next time we buy Sweet (sister, Treats, early) cereal maybe I'll get the prize.

Answer Key

It was the first baseball game, and Jill was excited. She put on her uniform. The (glove, team, was) had practiced hard, so Jill knew (two, her, they) were ready. Her team was called (the, at, up) Lions. Jill played first base. She (into, could, three) catch any ball that came her (by, side, way). Batting was hard for her though. (Her, She, Warm) sometimes struck out. When she did (ran, soon, get) on base, she could run fast.

(Dad, Ball, Team) brought Jill to the game. When (on, us, she) got there, she saw her team (yellow, landed, warming) up. Jill grabbed her glove. Dad (first, gave, told) her a hug and told her (to, at, up) have fun.

The other team was (grabbed, bunted, called) the Bears. The Bears were first (it, to, for) bat. Jill was ready. The batter (ready, swung, hard) at the ball, and it went (all, told, way) up into the air. Jill watched (the, her, an) ball and got ready to catch (she, it, who). She put up her glove, and (an, the, as) ball landed in her mitt. Hurray! (This, She, Her) caught the first fly ball!

Soon (is, any, it) was the Lions' turn to bat. (Were, The, Base) first three batters for the Lions (hard, got, have) hits. Jill was waiting for her (other, have, turn) to bat. She swung bats to (run, warm, glove) up. Her teammates had scored two (runs, air, put) already. Jill was nervous as she (gone, went, about) to bat. Her coach told her (to, by, at) bunt, so Jill bunted. She ran (many, fast, went) to first base and just made (a, she, it). The other team overthrew the ball. (She, Mitt, Her) coach told her to keep running. (She, Her, And) made it to second! Now she (struck, landed, waited) for the next batter to get (for, them, her) to home plate.

It was the first baseball game, and Jill was excited. She put on her uniform. The (glove, team, was) had practiced hard, so Jill knew (two, her, they) were ready. Her team was called (the, at, up) Lions. Jill played first base. She (into, could, three) catch any ball that came her (by, side, way). Batting was hard for her though. (Her, She, Warm) sometimes struck out. When she did (ran, soon, get) on base, she could run fast.

(Dad, Ball, Team) brought Jill to the game. When (on, us, she) got there, she saw her team (yellow, landed, warming) up. Jill grabbed her glove. Dad (first, gave, told) her a hug and told her (to, at, up) have fun.

The other team was (grabbed, bunted, called) the Bears. The Bears were first (it, to, for) bat. Jill was ready. The batter (ready, swung, hard) at the ball, and it went (all, told, way) up into the air. Jill watched (the, her, an) ball and got ready to catch (she, it, who). She put up her glove, and (an, the, as) ball landed in her mitt. Hurray! (This, She, Her) caught the first fly ball!

Soon (is, any, it) was the Lions' turn to bat. (Were, The, Base) first three batters for the Lions (hard, got, have) hits. Jill was waiting for her (other, have, turn) to bat. She swung bats to (run, warm, glove) up. Her teammates had scored two (runs, air, put) already. Jill was nervous as she (gone, went, about) to bat. Her coach told her (to, by, at) bunt, so Jill bunted. She ran (many, fast, went) to first base and just made (a, she, it). The other team overthrew the ball. (She, Mitt, Her) coach told her to keep running. (She, Her, And) made it to second! Now she (struck, landed, waited) for the next batter to get (for, them, her) to home plate.

Answer Key

Joey liked to visit his Grandpa and Grandma. Today he played with their old (train, behind, girl) set and read their classic books. (The, His, He) helped Grandpa finish a puzzle of (it, a, an) shark swimming in the ocean. He (looked, through, played) "Go Fish" with Grandpa and made (jump, lunch, home) with Grandma. After lunch, Grandpa took (a, an, he) nap while Grandma worked on some (shoes, back, bills). The old house was so quiet (him, Joey, pink) could hear the clock's tick-tock (she, in, on) the den downstairs.

"I want to (visit, their, play) football with someone," Joey said. Grandpa's (saw, legs, voice) were tired, and Grandma's back hurt. (Since, Train, While) Joey had no one to play (nap, over, with), he sat on the front steps. (Books, While, Whose) he sat there, he threw his (swimming, football, someone) up and down.

Soon Joey saw (someone, yellow, football) his size next door. Maybe he (would, them, ocean) have a friend to play with! (Him, He, Old) slowly walked across the yard. He (heard, into, stood) behind a large tree and looked (while, next, house) door. Oh no! It was just (to, an, a) girl. She wouldn't want to play (Grandma, visiting, football).

As Joey began to tiptoe back (at, to, did) Grandpa's house, he heard a voice. "(Can, Took, Want) to play?" asked the girl. Joey (played, front, turned) around and studied the girl. She (had, have, den) long blond hair and blue eyes. (Her, Den, She) was wearing shiny shoes and a (quiet, fancy, hurt) yellow skirt.

"She'll just want to (old, hear, play) dolls or jump rope," Joey thought.

Answer Key

(Took, Some, Joey) turned around to run home, but (the, ran, if) girl ran to him and grabbed (an, are, the) football. She ran back and passed (as, the, an) football to Joey. What a pass! (Next, The, An) football sailed through the air. Joey (reached, worked, thought) out to catch the ball. Before (his, he, a) knew it, the football bounced off (him, sat, his) head. He fell to the ground. (Turn, Soon, Maybe) girls could play football after all.

Joey liked to visit his Grandpa and Grandma. Today he played with their old (train, behind, girl) set and read their classic books. (The, His, He) helped Grandpa finish a puzzle of (it, a, an) shark swimming in the ocean. He (looked, through, played) "Go Fish" with Grandpa and made (jump, lunch, home) with Grandma. After lunch, Grandpa took (a, an, he) nap while Grandma worked on some (shoes, back, bills). The old house was so quiet (him, Joey, pink) could hear the clock's tick-tock (she, in, on) the den downstairs.

"I want to (visit, their, play) football with someone," Joey said. Grandpa's (saw, legs, voice) were tired, and Grandma's back hurt. (Since, Train, While) Joey had no one to play (nap, over, with), he sat on the front steps. (Books, While, Whose) he sat there, he threw his (swimming, football, someone) up and down.

Soon Joey saw (someone, yellow, football) his size next door. Maybe he (would, them, ocean) have a friend to play with! (Him, He, Old) slowly walked across the yard. He (heard, into, stood) behind a large tree and looked (while, next, house) door. Oh no! It was just (to, an, a) girl. She wouldn't want to play (Grandma, visiting, football).

As Joey began to tiptoe back (at, to, did) Grandpa's house, he heard a voice. "(Can, Took, Want) to play?" asked the girl. Joey (played, front, turned) around and studied the girl. She (had, have, den) long blond hair and blue eyes. (Her, Den, She) was wearing shiny shoes and a (quiet, fancy, hurt) yellow skirt.

"She'll just want to (old, hear, play) dolls or jump rope," Joey thought.

(Took, Some, Joey) turned around to run home, but (the, ran, if) girl ran to him and grabbed (an, are, the) football. She ran back and passed (as, the, an) football to Joey. What a pass! (Next, The, An) football sailed through the air. Joey (reached, worked, thought) out to catch the ball. Before (his, he, a) knew it, the football bounced off (him, sat, his) head. He fell to the ground. (Turn, Soon, Maybe) girls could play football after all.

Answer Key

Kim was happy because she lost her first tooth!

"Put your tooth under your pillow (too, for, so) the Tooth Fairy can come," said (Mother, smart, pillow).

"The Tooth Fairy will take your (floss, catch, tooth) and leave you some money," said (Fairy, Father, Better).

Kim thought all day about the (happy, floss, Tooth) Fairy.

"I would rather catch the (later, Tooth, floss) Fairy than get money," she said. "(Then, Under, Would) she could be my little friend. (Us, Put, We) could play games together. She can (fell, fly, see), so she could teach me to (fly, lost, if) too. That would be better than (money, catch, stay)."

"The Tooth Fairy is smart," Mother (hour, said, told). "It would be hard to catch (all, she, her)."

"I am smart too!" Kim said.

(That, Come, Then) night, Kim made a trap for (is, an, the) Tooth Fairy. She tied some dental (pillow, floss, money) around her tooth. She tied a (happy, awake, small) bell to the other end of (is, the, see) dental floss. Then she put the (tooth, next, pillow) under her pillow.

"When the Tooth (Mother, Fairy, Little) tries to take my tooth, the (money, was, bell) will wake me up," she told (tooth, Mother, Fairy). "I will catch her in my (together, butterfly, thoughts) net."

After trying to stay awake (be, from, for) an hour, Kim finally fell asleep. (Later, Other, Than), the sound of a ringing bell (too, woke, fell) her up. Kim jumped out of (so, she, bed) and scooped up her pillow in (the, an, tied) butterfly net.

Answer Key

Kim didn't see the (friend, some, Tooth) Fairy in the net. She only (hard, saw, hear) a note. The note said, "Better (night, put, luck) next time! Love, the Tooth Fairy."

Kim was happy because she lost her first tooth!

"Put your tooth under your pillow (too, for, so) the Tooth Fairy can come," said (Mother, smart, pillow).

"The Tooth Fairy will take your (floss, catch, tooth) and leave you some money," said (Fairy, Father, Better).

Kim thought all day about the (happy, floss, Tooth) Fairy.

"I would rather catch the (later, Tooth, floss) Fairy than get money," she said. "(Then, Under, Would) she could be my little friend. (Us, Put, We) could play games together. She can (fell, fly, see), so she could teach me to (fly, lost, if) too. That would be better than (money, catch, stay)."

"The Tooth Fairy is smart," Mother (hour, said, told). "It would be hard to catch (all, she, her)."

"I am smart too!" Kim said.

(That, Come, Then) night, Kim made a trap for (is, an, the) Tooth Fairy. She tied some dental (pillow, floss, money) around her tooth. She tied a (happy, awake, small) bell to the other end of (is, the, see) dental floss. Then she put the (tooth, next, pillow) under her pillow.

"When the Tooth (Mother, Fairy, Little) tries to take my tooth, the (money, was, bell) will wake me up," she told (tooth, Mother, Fairy). "I will catch her in my (together, butterfly, thoughts) net."

After trying to stay awake (be, from, for) an hour, Kim finally fell asleep. (Later, Other, Than), the sound of a ringing bell (too, woke, fell) her up. Kim jumped out of (so, she, bed) and scooped up her pillow in (the, an, tied) butterfly net.

Kim didn't see the (friend, some, Tooth) Fairy in the net. She only (hard, saw, hear) a note. The note said, "Better (night, put, luck) next time! Love, the Tooth Fairy."

Answer Key

Maddie wanted to learn to ice skate. She went to the skating rink (wearing, learning, children) her coat, mittens, and hat. She (learning, skating, couldn't) wait to skate fast and spin (was, to, in) the air.

Maddie tied her new (harder, skates, laugh) and marched out to the ice-(learning, Maddie, skating) rink. She took one step on (an, the, stop) ice and slipped! She tumbled onto (the, took, an) cold ice and hit her knees (but, went, and) hands. She didn't know that the (when, ice, stop) would be so slippery!

Learning to (skate, kids, will) was harder than she thought. It (went, hat, was) cold, and her feet hurt from (wait, the, coat) tight skates. Maddie wanted to give (a, up, the) and go home.

Her teacher took (she, her, and) hand. "It takes a lot of (slippery, practice, mittens) to skate well. Don't give up," (with, made, said) her teacher.

Week after week, Maddie (gone, onto, went) to skating lessons. Sometimes younger children (wanted, skated, marched) past her quickly. That made her (work, new, tied) even harder. "If that little kid (went, can, one) skate well, I can too," she (cold, hurt, said) to herself.

The day came when (harder, Maddie, didn't) could skate well. She could glide (hands, across, quickly) the ice. She could stop without (younger, slipped, falling). Skating was fun!

One day Maddie (took, saw, fall) something that made her laugh. Her (skate, younger, mother) stepped onto the ice with new (skates, little, knees). She took one step and slipped!

Answer Key

"(Go, if, Lot) you can skate well, I can (soon, too, home)," said Mother. "It will take a (made, much, lot) of practice."

"Don't give up, Mom!" (one, said, takes) Maddie.

Maddie wanted to learn to ice skate. She went to the skating rink (wearing, learning, children) her coat, mittens, and hat. She (learning, skating, couldn't) wait to skate fast and spin (was, to, in) the air.

Maddie tied her new (harder, skates, laugh) and marched out to the ice-(learning, Maddie, skating) rink. She took one step on (an, the, stop) ice and slipped! She tumbled onto (the, took, an) cold ice and hit her knees (but, went, and) hands. She didn't know that the (when, ice, stop) would be so slippery!

Learning to (skate, kids, will) was harder than she thought. It (went, hat, was) cold, and her feet hurt from (wait, the, coat) tight skates. Maddie wanted to give (a, up, the) and go home.

Her teacher took (she, her, and) hand. "It takes a lot of (slippery, practice, mittens) to skate well. Don't give up," (with, made, said) her teacher.

Week after week, Maddie (gone, onto, went) to skating lessons. Sometimes younger children (wanted, skated, marched) past her quickly. That made her (work, new, tied) even harder. "If that little kid (went, can, one) skate well, I can too," she (cold, hurt, said) to herself.

The day came when (harder, Maddie, didn't) could skate well. She could glide (hands, across, quickly) the ice. She could stop without (younger, slipped, falling). Skating was fun!

One day Maddie (took, saw, fall) something that made her laugh. Her (skate, younger, mother) stepped onto the ice with new (skates, little, knees). She took one step and slipped!

"(Go, If, Lot) you can skate well, I can (soon, too, home)," said Mother. "It will take a (made, much, lot) of practice."

"Don't give up, Mom!" (one, said, takes) Maddie.

Answer Key

My dad can fix anything. Once my little sister and I (began, was, were) playing hide and seek in the (broom, away, house). I hid in the broom closet. (Why, When, New) my sister tried to find me, (she, her, from) opened the door too fast and (at, she, it) fell off the closet. Mom said (but, we, us) should be more careful. Dad got (out, over, tire) his tools and repaired the closet.

(Popsicle, Another, Broken) time, my dog Blue and I (was, broke, were) playing catch with the football. I (down, threw, lost) the ball too close to the (closet, broom, window). The ball hit the window and (broke, should, under) it into about a hundred pieces. (Blue, Mom, Her) said to stay away from the (playing, careful, broken) glass. Dad got out his tools (new, and, or) put in a new window.

Later, (me, my, I) was playing with my new dump (truck, water, good). I wanted to drive fast down (an, the, once) hall. My truck smashed into the (under, wall, dog) and lost a tire. Mom said (I, is, me) should play more carefully. Dad got (fix, hide, out) his tools and fixed my truck.

(Time, Today, Across), my little sister began to cry. (She, Got, Her) was eating a red popsicle and (fly, me, it) broke.

"Fix my popsicle, Daddy!" she (truck, said, saw).

"Dad can't fix a popsicle," I (saw, said, wall).

"I'll bet he can," said Mom.

(Fast, Dog, Dad) put the pieces together and ran (an, more, the) popsicle under cold water. He put (ran, it, wet) back in the freezer. In ten (freezer, minutes, trucks), Dad took the popsicle out. It (was, were, out) as good as new!

"Dad, you (those, fixed, really) can fix anything!" my sister said.

My dad can fix anything. Once my little sister and I (began, was, were) playing hide and seek in the (broom, away, house). I hid in the broom closet. (Why, When, New) my sister tried to find me, (she, her, from) opened the door too fast and (at, she, it) fell off the closet. Mom said (but, we, us) should be more careful. Dad got (out, over, tire) his tools and repaired the closet.

(Popsicle, Another, Broken) time, my dog Blue and I (was, broke, were) playing catch with the football. I (down, threw, lost) the ball too close to the (closet, broom, window). The ball hit the window and (broke, should, under) it into about a hundred pieces. (Blue, Mom, Her) said to stay away from the (playing, careful, broken) glass. Dad got out his tools (new, and, or) put in a new window.

Later, (me, my, I) was playing with my new dump (truck, water, good). I wanted to drive fast down (an, the, once) hall. My truck smashed into the (under, wall, dog) and lost a tire. Mom said (I, is, me) should play more carefully. Dad got (fix, hide, out) his tools and fixed my truck.

(Time, Today, Across), my little sister began to cry. (She, Got, Her) was eating a red popsicle and (fly, me, it) broke.

"Fix my popsicle, Daddy!" she (truck, said, saw).

"Dad can't fix a popsicle," I (saw, said, wall).

"I'll bet he can," said Mom.

(Fast, Dog, Dad) put the pieces together and ran (an, more, the) popsicle under cold water. He put (ran, it, wet) back in the freezer. In ten (freezer, minutes, trucks), Dad took the popsicle out. It (was, were, out) as good as new!

"Dad, you (those, fixed, really) can fix anything!" my sister said.

Answer Key

My little sister Emma ran to me. "Oh! Oh! I squished it!" she (saw, said, soon). The tiny toad in her hand (picked, about, looked) like a rock. It had shiny (pants, Emma, black) eyes that looked like blackberries from (then, our, dry) berry patch. I scooped the toad (out, that, gone) of Emma's hand and hurried to (finger, Mother, finally).

"She squished the toad," I said. "(Our, We, The) need to bury it." But Mother (as, can, was) busy hanging clothes on the line (for, saw, to) dry.

"We will bury the toad (green, after, hurry) I finish hanging these clothes." Mother (said, patch, saw).

I waited for Mother for a (long, much, bury) time. I held the toad in (her, so, my) left hand. I held Mother's leg (lines, it's, with) my right hand. Tears ran down (of, my, our) cheeks. Mother hung our shirts, our (toad, socks, line), and our pants. Finally she was (dry, done, down).

Mother picked up Emma and then (took, our, ran) my hand from her leg. We (waited, walked, roses) to our flower garden where the (busy, rocks, roses) and lilies grow. I picked a (shirt, yellow, clothes) lily to put next to the (from, hung, toad) while Mother scooped up dirt.

"Put (him, he, open) in here," she said.

When I (right, opened, clothes) my fingers, the toad jumped out! (And, We, He) crawled into the long, green grass. (Is, I, Me) was so happy I jumped as (tiny, hand, high) as the clothesline. Mother's eyes grew (wide, dry, leg). Emma was happy too.

Answer Key

We all (scooped, squished, followed) behind the toad, and soon he (can, was, rock) gone. He hopped into the blackberry (shirts, where, bushes) near the woods. I smiled. I (leg, was, held) glad that Mother had so much (picked, scooped, laundry) to do that day.

My little sister Emma ran to me. "Oh! Oh! I squished it!" she (saw, said, soon). The tiny toad in her hand (picked, about, looked) like a rock. It had shiny (pants, Emma, black) eyes that looked like blackberries from (then, our, dry) berry patch. I scooped the toad (out, that, gone) of Emma's hand and hurried to (finger, Mother, finally).

"She squished the toad," I said. "(Our, We, The) need to bury it." But Mother (as, can, was) busy hanging clothes on the line (for, saw, to) dry.

"We will bury the toad (green, after, hurry) I finish hanging these clothes." Mother (said, patch, saw).

I waited for Mother for a (long, much, bury) time. I held the toad in (her, so, my) left hand. I held Mother's leg (lines, it's, with) my right hand. Tears ran down (of, my, our) cheeks. Mother hung our shirts, our (toad, socks, line), and our pants. Finally she was (dry, done, down).

Mother picked up Emma and then (took, our, ran) my hand from her leg. We (waited, walked, roses) to our flower garden where the (busy, rocks, roses) and lilies grow. I picked a (shirt, yellow, clothes) lily to put next to the (from, hung, toad) while Mother scooped up dirt.

"Put (him, he, open) in here," she said.

When I (right, opened, clothes) my fingers, the toad jumped out! (And, We, He) crawled into the long, green grass. (Is, I, Me) was so happy I jumped as (tiny, hand, high) as the clothesline. Mother's eyes grew (wide, dry, leg). Emma was happy too.

We all (scooped, squished, followed) behind the toad, and soon he (can, was, rock) gone. He hopped into the blackberry (shirts, where, bushes) near the woods. I smiled. I (leg, was, held) glad that Mother had so much (picked, scooped, laundry) to do that day.

Answer Key

My teacher says it takes many years to become a great artist. "I am a great artist already," (we, I, me) tell her.

I paint with a (become, takes, splash) of bright red. I add a (draw, drip, pots) of yellow, and it becomes orange! (I, My, If) smear blue finger paint. Next I (long, feel, add) a smudge of yellow, and it (already, becomes, forgets) green!

I can also draw well. (I, To, My) tell my cat to sit still (a, or, so) I can sketch him. Cats can (roll, sit, says) for long amounts of time. Dogs (make, good, can't) sit as long. The last time (an, I, me) sketched a picture of my dog, (it, I, my) couldn't finish it. When I began (at, the, to) draw his legs, he ran and (cups, hid, also) under the couch.

My pictures of (smear, cats, red) are great. I draw cats in (finish, trees, yellow). I draw cats on couches. My (drawings, teacher, plates) says it's okay if the cats (are, a, in) my drawings are not perfect. She (says, long, told) it's fine if their heads are (most, say, too) big for their bodies or if (it, I, an) forget to draw their ears.

I (how, can, am) also good with clay. It is (fun, ran, his) to feel the cold, sticky clay (couches, between, sketched) my fingers. I can roll the (paint, along, clay) into long snakes. I can form (for, the, when) clay into dishes. I can make (red, draw, pots), cups, and plates. It's not really (most, very, add) difficult.

Other people have to work (and, next, but) study to become great artists. I (his, was, am) a great artist already!

My teacher says it takes many years to become a great artist. "I am a great artist already," (we, I, me) tell her.

I paint with a (become, takes, splash) of bright red. I add a (draw, drip, pots) of yellow, and it becomes orange! (I, My, If) smear blue finger paint. Next I (long, feel, add) a smudge of yellow, and it (already, becomes, forgets) green!

I can also draw well. (I, To, My) tell my cat to sit still (a, or, so) I can sketch him. Cats can (roll, sit, says) for long amounts of time. Dogs (make, good, can't) sit as long. The last time (an, I, me) sketched a picture of my dog, (it, I, my) couldn't finish it. When I began (at, the, to) draw his legs, he ran and (cups, hid, also) under the couch.

My pictures of (smear, cats, red) are great. I draw cats in (finish, trees, yellow). I draw cats on couches. My (drawings, teacher, plates) says it's okay if the cats (are, a, in) my drawings are not perfect. She (says, long, told) it's fine if their heads are (most, say, too) big for their bodies or if (it, I, an) forget to draw their ears.

I (how, can, am) also good with clay. It is (fun, ran, his) to feel the cold, sticky clay (couches, between, sketched) my fingers. I can roll the (paint, along, clay) into long snakes. I can form (for, the, when) clay into dishes. I can make (red, draw, pots), cups, and plates. It's not really (most, very, add) difficult.

Other people have to work (and, next, but) study to become great artists. I (his, was, am) a great artist already!

Answer Key

One spring day, Mark went for a walk in the woods. He walked among big trees and (chirped, longer, climbed) steep hills. As he walked, Mark (there, tipped, walked) his head to the side so (him, are, he) could listen for birds.

Many beautiful (branches, bluebirds, listened) build nests in the woods early (in, for, out) the spring. The pretty bluebirds sing (soon, from, for) their nests all summer long.

Mark (seashell, stopped, walked) by a fence post and listened. (His, One, He) didn't hear any bluebirds, so he (among, stood, kept) on walking. He stopped near a (stump, here, birds) and looked up at the trees. (Her, He, My) didn't see any bluebirds, so he (flew, guys, kept) on looking.

Mark walked and walked. (Soon, Down, Buy) he got sleepy. He laid down (out, in, big) the green grass and took a (from, nest, nap). When Mark woke up, the forest (is, was, were) no longer silent. Bluebirds were singing (high, steep, had) in the treetops.

"There you are," (From, Woods, Mark) said as he stood up. "I (were, was, at) looking for you guys. Where were (so, you, at) all winter?"

"Down in the warm (up, air, tops)," the bluebirds sang to Mark as (they, trees, near) flew from branch to branch. "Where (were, them, and) you?"

"I was at home, sitting (on, in, fly) front of the fire. It gets (glad, early, cold) here during the winter," Mark said.

"(Us, At, We) know," the bluebirds chirped together. "We (looking, brought, sleepy) something back from our trip for (you, we, took)." A little bluebird flew down and (there, landed, walked) on Mark's shoulder. The bird had (an, by, a) seashell in its beak.

Answer Key

"Thank you (any, my, me) friends," said Mark. "I'm glad you (are, soon, is) back in the woods."

One spring day, Mark went for a walk in the woods. He walked among big trees and (chirped, longer, climbed) steep hills. As he walked, Mark (there, tipped, walked) his head to the side so (him, are, he) could listen for birds.

Many beautiful (branches, bluebirds, listened) build nests in the woods early (in, for, out) the spring. The pretty bluebirds sing (soon, from, for) their nests all summer long.

Mark (seashell, stopped, walked) by a fence post and listened. (His, One, He) didn't hear any bluebirds, so he (among, stood, kept) on walking. He stopped near a (stump, here, birds) and looked up at the trees. (Her, He, My) didn't see any bluebirds, so he (flew, guys, kept) on looking.

Mark walked and walked. (Soon, Down, Buy) he got sleepy. He laid down (out, in, big) the green grass and took a (from, nest, nap). When Mark woke up, the forest (is, was, were) no longer silent. Bluebirds were singing (high, steep, had) in the treetops.

"There you are," (From, Woods, Mark) said as he stood up. "I (were, was, at) looking for you guys. Where were (so, you, at) all winter?"

"Down in the warm (up, air, tops)," the bluebirds sang to Mark as (they, trees, near) flew from branch to branch. "Where (were, them, and) you?"

"I was at home, sitting (on, in, fly) front of the fire. It gets (glad, early, cold) here during the winter," Mark said.

"(Us, At, We) know," the bluebirds chirped together. "We (looking, brought, sleepy) something back from our trip for (you, we, took)." A little bluebird flew down and (there, landed, walked) on Mark's shoulder. The bird had (an, by, a) seashell in its beak.

"Thank you (any, my, me) friends," said Mark. "I'm glad you (are, soon, is) back in the woods."

Answer Key

Pat loved to make cookies. She and her grandma made the (warm, wild, best) cookies.

Pat helped measure the flour (so, but, and) scoop the sugar. Grandma cracked the (about, eggs, bowl). Pat mixed it all together. When (it, her, was) got too thick, Grandma stirred. Pat (liked, dough, poured) in the chocolate chips while Grandma (ate, kept, egg) stirring.

Pat got two spoons. She (took, and, or) Grandma scooped out the dough. Then (three, lick, they) dropped the dough onto cookie sheets.

(Pat, Got, Them) carried the cookie sheets to Grandma. (Scooped, Grandma, Glasses) put them in the oven. Pat (oven, went, set) the timer.

They scooped more dough (made, while, milk) they waited. They had lots of (sugar, cookie, timer) sheets to fill.

Sometimes Pat took (so, an, a) break. She liked to peek through (the, two, by) oven window and watch the cookies (stop, bake, them).

The timer went off. Grandma removed (she, onto, the) cookie sheets from the oven. Pat (for, put, was) each cookie on the cooling rack. (Pat, Them, To) and Grandma each tried a cookie. (It, The, More) warm, gooey cookies tasted delicious!

Grandma (dropped, spoons, poured) glasses of milk. Pat took three (spoons, cookies, sheets) to Grandpa, who was in the (milk, other, fast) room. He ate all three. He (asked, crack, oven) for more, and Pat went to (away, set, get) them. Grandpa thanked Pat.

Answer Key

After Pat (but, and, when) Grandma finished baking cookies, they had (at, to, me) clean up. They had made a (each, mess, dough)! Pat took the bowl to the (clean, home, sink). Grandma washed the dishes and Pat (dried, lots, sold) them. Pat helped put them away. (Where, Had, Then) they put the cookies in the (sugar, cookie, scoop) jar.

Pat loved to make cookies. She and her grandma made the (warm, wild, best) cookies.

Pat helped measure the flour (so, but, and) scoop the sugar. Grandma cracked the (about, eggs, bowl). Pat mixed it all together. When (it, her, was) got too thick, Grandma stirred. Pat (liked, dough, poured) in the chocolate chips while Grandma (ate, kept, egg) stirring.

Pat got two spoons. She (took, and, or) Grandma scooped out the dough. Then (three, lick, they) dropped the dough onto cookie sheets.

(Pat, Got, Them) carried the cookie sheets to Grandma. (Scooped, Grandma, Glasses) put them in the oven. Pat (oven, went, set) the timer.

They scooped more dough (made, while, milk) they waited. They had lots of (sugar, cookie, timer) sheets to fill.

Sometimes Pat took (so, an, a) break. She liked to peek through (the, two, by) oven window and watch the cookies (stop, bake, them).

The timer went off. Grandma removed (she, onto, the) cookie sheets from the oven. Pat (for, put, was) each cookie on the cooling rack. (Pat, Them, To) and Grandma each tried a cookie. (It, The, More) warm, gooey cookies tasted delicious!

Grandma (dropped, spoons, poured) glasses of milk. Pat took three (spoons, cookies, sheets) to Grandpa, who was in the (milk, other, fast) room. He ate all three. He (asked, crack, oven) for more, and Pat went to (away, set, get) them. Grandpa thanked Pat.

After Pat (but, and, when) Grandma finished baking cookies, they had (at, to, me) clean up. They had made a (each, mess, dough)! Pat took the bowl to the (clean, home, sink). Grandma washed the dishes and Pat (dried, lots, sold) them. Pat helped put them away. (Where, Had, Then) they put the cookies in the (sugar, cookie, scoop) jar.

Answer Key

Can animals really talk to each other? Let's listen to the animals at (the, to, are) Bunker Hill Farm to hear what (them, they, gold) might say to each other.

"Where (say, want, did) I put my bone?" asks Bow-(Wow, love, hear) the dog.

"I love to take (say, me, my) master for a walk," says Ruff (to, the, at) dog. "I like to make him (talk, run, ten)."

Moo-Moo the cow says, "My (sad, last, good) batch of milk was very fine. (Let's, Other, It'll) make great cheese or cream."

"My (we'll, milk, ice) is made into ice cream," says (Better, Other, Spotty) the cow. "I wish I could (look, tell, eat) some. I bet it tastes sweet. (I, So, Me) get tired of just eating grass."

"(My, At, I) hope all the kids finish their (love, milk, snack)," says Jersey the cow. "I want (they, walk, them) to grow strong."

What do the (milk, fish, cream) say as they swim in Lake (Wanted, Rainbow, Buttons)?

"This water is too cold," says (Flipper, Master, Behind) the fish. "I want to live (or, on, in) Mexico. It's warm there."

"Here comes (to, a, an) boat," says Bass the fish. "I (want, hope, oats) they have better worms for bait (this, when, today). Yesterday's worms were really slimy."

Henry (true, all, the) horse gallops past Patty the pony. "(Look, Say, Make) at my new saddle," he brags. "(Why, He, It) has buttons of real gold. It's (saddle, brown, smooth) as ice."

"You're looking good," replies (donkey, Patty, says). "Trot back over here and we'll (hope, sweet, have) a snack. We'll share oats and (cow, hay, good)."

Answer Key

Wouldn't it be great if we (great, really, sweet) could talk to animals? Just think (about, fish, those) the things we would learn from (every, each, too) other!

Can animals really talk to each other? Let's listen to the animals at (the, to, are) Bunker Hill Farm to hear what (them, they, gold) might say to each other.

"Where (say, want, did) I put my bone?" asks Bow-(Wow, love, hear) the dog.

"I love to take (say, me, my) master for a walk," says Ruff (to, the, at) dog. "I like to make him (talk, run, ten)."

Moo-Moo the cow says, "My (sad, last, good) batch of milk was very fine. (Let's, Other, It'll) make great cheese or cream."

"My (we'll, milk, ice) is made into ice cream," says (Better, Other, Spotty) the cow. "I wish I could (look, tell, eat) some. I bet it tastes sweet. (I, So, Me) get tired of just eating grass."

(My, At, I) hope all the kids finish their (love, milk, snack)," says Jersey the cow. "I want (they, walk, them) to grow strong."

What do the (milk, fish, cream) say as they swim in Lake (Wanted, Rainbow, Buttons)?

"This water is too cold," says (Flipper, Master, Behind) the fish. "I want to live (or, on, in) Mexico. It's warm there."

"Here comes (to, a, an) boat," says Bass the fish. "I (want, hope, oats) they have better worms for bait (this, when, today). Yesterday's worms were really slimy."

Henry (true, all, the) horse gallops past Patty the pony. (Look, Say, Make) at my new saddle," he brags. (Why, He, It) has buttons of real gold. It's (saddle, brown, smooth) as ice."

"You're looking good," replies (donkey, Patty, says). "Trot back over here and we'll (hope, sweet, have) a snack. We'll share oats and (cow, hay, good)."

Wouldn't it be great if we (great, really, sweet) could talk to animals? Just think (about, fish, those) the things we would learn from (every, each, too) other!

Answer Key

One day Miss Smith asked the kids in her class what jobs they'd like to have when they grow up.

"I want to be a football (player, worker, grand)," Joe said. "I like to throw (so, but, and) catch footballs. It would be so (kids, cool, sick) to run across the goal line."

"(A, I'd, Me) like to be a teacher," said (Smith, might, Robin). "I want to help boys and (girls, want, nails). I like to write on the (footballs, chalkboard, different). Teaching about numbers and words would (but, be, go) fun."

"I would like to be (the, it, an) actor," said Danny. "I'd get to (have, star, white) in plays on a stage. I'd (kids, gone, get) to act out different parts. I (liked, coats, could) be a person or an animal. (If, I, Me) might get to sing and dance. (Went, Think, Being) an actor would be grand."

"I (was, want, liked) to be a construction worker," Becky (shots, told, said). "I want to lay tar on (grow, new, one) roads. I want to help build (worker, bridges, numbers) across water. I want to hold (the, an, and) sign that tells cars to stop."

"(Only, Big, Wow)," said Josh. "I want to be (an, a, at) construction worker too! Only I want (or, to, at) build houses. I like using hammers (but, and, like) nails. Sawing wood and putting it (doctors, because, together) would be great."

"I'd like to (be, so, see) a doctor," said Ruth. "I like (is, an, the) white coats doctors wear. Looking at (parts, give, x-rays) seems interesting. I think I'd like (giving, seven, should) check-ups. I would like to (catch, help, sign) sick people feel better, but I (search, wouldn't, behind) like to give shots."

Answer Key

"Those all (sound, want, hold) like exciting jobs" said Miss Smith. "(Wouldn't, Birthday, Remember) that going to school every day (cool, will, was) help you learn how to do (all, any, but) job."

One day Miss Smith asked the kids in her class what jobs they'd like to have when they grow up.

"I want to be a football (player, worker, grand)," Joe said. "I like to throw (so, but, and) catch footballs. It would be so (kids, cool, sick) to run across the goal line."

"(A, I'd, Me) like to be a teacher," said (Smith, might, Robin). "I want to help boys and (girls, want, nails). I like to write on the (footballs, chalkboard, different). Teaching about numbers and words would (but, be, go) fun."

"I would like to be (the, it, an) actor," said Danny. "I'd get to (have, star, white) in plays on a stage. I'd (kids, gone, get) to act out different parts. I (liked, coats, could) be a person or an animal. (If, I, Me) might get to sing and dance. (Went, Think, Being) an actor would be grand."

"I (was, want, liked) to be a construction worker," Becky (shots, told, said). "I want to lay tar on (grow, new, one) roads. I want to help build (worker, bridges, numbers) across water. I want to hold (the, an, and) sign that tells cars to stop."

"(Only, Big, Wow)," said Josh. "I want to be (an, a, at) construction worker too! Only I want (or, to, at) build houses. I like using hammers (but, and, like) nails. Sawing wood and putting it (doctors, because, together) would be great."

"I'd like to (be, so, see) a doctor," said Ruth. "I like (is, an, the) white coats doctors wear. Looking at (parts, give, x-rays) seems interesting. I think I'd like (giving, seven, should) check-ups. I would like to (catch, help, sign) sick people feel better, but I (search, wouldn't, behind) like to give shots."

"Those all (sound, want, hold) like exciting jobs" said Miss Smith. "(Wouldn't, Birthday, Remember) that going to school every day (cool, will, was) help you learn how to do (all, any, but) job."

Answer Key

The lion was the king of all the animals. He was strong and brave. He (was, had, some) golden fur and razor sharp claws. (Him, At, He) could run faster than the wind. (He, The, To) could jump high into the branches (for, of, by) a tree. But he was also (slow, much, very) rude.

"I am the king of (an, won, the) jungle," he would say. "That means (they, you, our) have to listen to me. You (him, have, agree) to follow my commands. Go and (rush, hunt, when) some dinner for me," he said. "(My, A, I) am very hungry."

Some of the (dinner, jumped, animals) in the jungle were getting sick (of, his, for) his rude mouth.

"I don't have (at, day, to) listen to him," hissed the snake. "(Those, That, Where) lion doesn't scare me."

"I agree," (told, said, mean) the turtle. "Yesterday I was walking (in, joy, fly) the woods when I met up (brave, hunt, with) him. He laughed at my slow (said, walk, push). He called me stupid. Then he (told, for, sent) me to go and hunt some (dinner, scare, command) for him. That lion is lazy (also, or, and) rude!"

The next day the turtle (were, but, was) sitting on a rock. He was (nose, fast, nice) and warm with the sun on (say, his, him) back. The lion snuck up behind (he, him, when). He was hungry. He decided to (eat, slow, walk) the turtle.

The lion jumped on (is, an, the) turtle. The turtle slipped into his (across, shell, woods). Nothing the lion did made the (slipped, green, turtle) come out.

"I'm going to have (jungle, turtle, scare) stew for dinner," said the lion. (Just, Above, What) then the turtle stuck his head (sick, by,

Answer Key

out) and bit the lion's nose. The (brave, lion, stew) never bothered the turtle again.

The lion was the king of all the animals. He was strong and brave. He (was, had, some) golden fur and razor sharp claws. (Him, At, He) could run faster than the wind. (He, The, To) could jump high into the branches (for, of, by) a tree. But he was also (slow, much, very) rude.

"I am the king of (an, won, the) jungle," he would say. "That means (they, you, our) have to listen to me. You (him, have, agree) to follow my commands. Go and (rush, hunt, when) some dinner for me," he said. "(My, A, I) am very hungry."

Some of the (dinner, jumped, animals) in the jungle were getting sick (of, his, for) his rude mouth.

"I don't have (at, day, to) listen to him," hissed the snake. "(Those, That, Where) lion doesn't scare me."

"I agree," (told, said, mean) the turtle. "Yesterday I was walking (in, joy, fly) the woods when I met up (brave, hunt, with) him. He laughed at my slow (said, walk, push). He called me stupid. Then he (told, for, sent) me to go and hunt some (dinner, scare, command) for him. That lion is lazy (also, or, and) rude!"

The next day the turtle (were, but, was) sitting on a rock. He was (nose, fast, nice) and warm with the sun on (say, his, him) back. The lion snuck up behind (he, him, when). He was hungry. He decided to (eat, slow, walk) the turtle.

The lion jumped on (is, an, the) turtle. The turtle slipped into his (across, shell, woods). Nothing the lion did made the (slipped, green, turtle) come out.

"I'm going to have (jungle, turtle, scare) stew for dinner," said the lion. (Just, Above, What) then the turtle stuck his head (sick, by,

out) and bit the lion's nose. The (brave, lion, stew) never bothered the turtle again.

Answer Key

A mother held her baby girl in her arms. "You are a new baby today," (baby, her, she) said. "You will grow up fast, (but, me, or) today you are my baby." The (words, clean, baby) smiled. The mother sang a song. (Floor, Later, Then) the baby fell asleep wrapped in (a, so, an) blanket.

The baby girl grew bigger. (At, With, The) baby crawled around on the floor. (It, She, Two) played with the kitchen bowls. She (inside, could, cried) when she wanted her bottle. "You (her, are, is) one year old today," the mother (said, told, look). "You are growing so fast, but (on, you, she) are still my baby."

The little (blank, with, baby) girl toddled through the house. "You (is, are, so) a terrible two!" her mother said. (The, Not, An) little girl liked to walk everywhere. (Any, Girl, She) looked in the bathroom. She played (her, in, sit) the bedroom. She even wanted to (new, grow, walk) outside the house. But the mother (says, over, said), "A baby should play inside the (smile, house, always) and stay clean on her second (growing, birthday, blanket)."

The mother sat in a chair. (Her, Not, She) sat and listened to all the (words, even, bags) her three-year-old girl could (in, say, said). The little girl liked to talk. (She, Her, Are) words were silly. Her mother said, "(Then, Was, Can) you say Happy Birthday?"

The little (girl, grow, first) is not so little anymore. Today (can, is, for) her first day of school. She (even, is, has) new school clothes. She has a (two, fast, bag) for her books. Her mother says, "(Get, Have, But) a good day at school, baby."

"(I, Is, Me) am not a baby anymore. I (at, am, is) five years old," says the little (who, girl, two).

Answer Key

"You are five years old, but (her, book, you) will always be my little baby (clean, house, girl)," says the mother.

A mother held her baby girl in her arms. "You are a new baby today," (baby, her, she) said. "You will grow up fast, (but, me, or) today you are my baby." The (words, clean, baby) smiled. The mother sang a song. (Floor, Later, Then) the baby fell asleep wrapped in (a, so, an) blanket.

The baby girl grew bigger. (At, With, The) baby crawled around on the floor. (It, She, Two) played with the kitchen bowls. She (inside, could, cried) when she wanted her bottle. "You (her, are, is) one year old today," the mother (said, told, look). "You are growing so fast, but (on, you, she) are still my baby."

The little (blank, with, baby) girl toddled through the house. "You (is, are, so) a terrible two!" her mother said. (The, Not, An) little girl liked to walk everywhere. (Any, Girl, She) looked in the bathroom. She played (her, in, sit) the bedroom. She even wanted to (new, grow, walk) outside the house. But the mother (says, over, said), "A baby should play inside the (smile, house, always) and stay clean on her second (growing, birthday, blanket)."

The mother sat in a chair. (Her, Not, She) sat and listened to all the (words, even, bags) her three-year-old girl could (in, say, said). The little girl liked to talk. (She, Her, Are) words were silly. Her mother said, "(Then, Was, Can) you say Happy Birthday?"

The little (girl, grow, first) is not so little anymore. Today (can, is, for) her first day of school. She (even, is, has) new school clothes. She has a (two, fast, bag) for her books. Her mother says, "(Get, Have, But) a good day at school, baby."

"(I, Is, Me) am not a baby anymore. I (at, am, is) five years old," says the little (who, girl, two).

"You are five years old, but (her, book, you) will always be my little baby (clean, house, girl)," says the mother.

Answer Key

This tale is about a boy named Kevin. Kevin is very big for a (first, door, ball) grade boy. He is taller than (buy, run, all) the other boys in his class. (While, Kevin, Kicks) has a lot of fun, but (working, because, myself) he's so big, he also runs (how, one, into) trouble.

Since Kevin is big, his (broken, teacher, swings) finds him a big chair. His (chair, open, crayon) is big enough, but his desk (in, are, is) still too small. The desk rests (on, by, sat) his knees and wobbles back and (down, other, forth). Poor Kevin.

Kevin likes to run (but, and, ouch) play. He plays ball almost every (jump, dunk, day). Kevin kicks the ball too hard, (goes, and, or) the ball goes POP! The ball (boy, are, is) flat now. Kevin likes to draw. (He, Is, Him) sharpens a crayon, and the crayon (high, goes, can) SNAP! The crayon is broken now. (Class, Kevin, Could) likes to open doors for people. (It, Him, He) swings the door open too fast, (lot, but, and) the door goes CRASH! The door (in, is, are) broken now. Poor Kevin.

Kevin is (door, all, very) tall. When he plays outside, he (back, must, find) play carefully on the small playground (bathroom, equipment, teachers). Sometimes he bumps his head. Ouch! (Before, About, Forth) lunch, Kevin washes his hands in (an, over, the) bathroom. He has to bend down (trouble, really, named) far to reach the soap and (is, an, the) towels. Kevin wishes he could be (desk, more, must) like the other kids.

The boys (and, but, too) girls in Kevin's class like Kevin. (For, They, Him) like him because he is so (big, now, flat). Kevin can jump high and dunk (if, an, a) basketball. He can reach high and (give, get, wear) things on tall shelves. Kevin's friends (door, think, likes) he's lucky. Kevin doesn't always agree (tall, with, knee) them, but he does think some (chairs, small, things) about being tall aren't so bad.

Answer Key

This tale is about a boy named Kevin. Kevin is very big for a (first, door, ball) grade boy. He is taller than (buy, run, all) the other boys in his class. (While, Kevin, Kicks) has a lot of fun, but (working, because, myself) he's so big, he also runs (how, one, into) trouble.

Since Kevin is big, his (broken, teacher, swings) finds him a big chair. His (chair, open, crayon) is big enough, but his desk (in, are, is) still too small. The desk rests (on, by, sat) his knees and wobbles back and (down, other, forth). Poor Kevin.

Kevin likes to run (but, and, ouch) play. He plays ball almost every (jump, dunk, day). Kevin kicks the ball too hard, (goes, and, or) the ball goes POP! The ball (boy, are, is) flat now. Kevin likes to draw. (He, Is, Him) sharpens a crayon, and the crayon (high, goes, can) SNAP! The crayon is broken now. (Class, Kevin, Could) likes to open doors for people. (It, Him, He) swings the door open too fast, (lot, but, and) the door goes CRASH! The door (in, is, are) broken now. Poor Kevin.

Kevin is (door, all, very) tall. When he plays outside, he (back, must, find) play carefully on the small playground (bathroom, equipment, teachers). Sometimes he bumps his head. Ouch! (Before, About, Forth) lunch, Kevin washes his hands in (an, over, the) bathroom. He has to bend down (trouble, really, named) far to reach the soap and (is, an, the) towels. Kevin wishes he could be (desk, more, must) like the other kids.

The boys (and, but, too) girls in Kevin's class like Kevin. (For, They, Him) like him because he is so (big, now, flat). Kevin can jump high and dunk (if, an, a) basketball. He can reach high and (give, get, wear) things on tall shelves. Kevin's friends (door, think, likes) he's lucky. Kevin doesn't always agree (tall, with, knee) them, but he does think some (chairs, small, things) about being tall aren't so bad.

Answer Key

Today is the animal fair. All the animals will be there. (Is, Try, The) birds will be singing. The bees (just, will, enjoy) be humming. The pigs will be (singing, oinking, yellow). The horses will be running. It (is, am, ten) the animals' favorite time of the (run, candy, year).

The horses enjoy the races. The (don't, pigs, boxes) love to eat the corn on (at, do, the) cob and cotton candy. The bees (were, enter, corn) their honey to see who will (just, want, win) first prize. The birds have a (singing, animal, running) contest.

Sam the cow has an (bees, some, idea). "Why don't we try something different (let, this, later) year?"

"That is a very good (corn, wants, idea)," says Rick. Rick is a pig. (A, He, Him) loves to taste the food. "Let's (try, want, just) something different this year."

The animals (all, are, any) agree to do something new. The (hum, corn, bees) enter the singing contest. The birds (now, try, them) to eat the pigs' food. The (loves, pigs, year) run the horse races. And the (seeds, liked, horses) try to make honey.

Oh, no! (This, What, Has) a mess! The bees don't sing (enjoy, first, well). They just buzz and buzz. The (enter, birds, year) can't eat the corn or the (their, seeds, cotton) candy. "I just want some seeds," (some, says, don't) Roger Robin. The pigs are very (tired, good, told). "I like to eat. I do (no, not, try) like to run," says Rick. The (where, horses, humming) are very mad. "We cannot make (buzz, sing, honey). Let the bees do it."

So (mess, at, the) animals return to the same events (they, try, them) do every year. This animal fair (is, see, will) the best ever!

Today is the animal fair. All the animals will be there. (Is, Try, The) birds will be singing. The bees (just, will, enjoy) be humming. The pigs will be (singing, oinking, yellow). The horses will be running. It (is, am, ten) the animals' favorite time of the (run, candy, year).

The horses enjoy the races. The (don't, pigs, boxes) love to eat the corn on (at, do, the) cob and cotton candy. The bees (were, enter, corn) their honey to see who will (just, want, win) first prize. The birds have a (singing, animal, running) contest.

Sam the cow has an (bees, some, idea). "Why don't we try something different (let, this, later) year?"

"That is a very good (corn, wants, idea)," says Rick. Rick is a pig. (A, He, Him) loves to taste the food. "Let's (try, want, just) something different this year."

The animals (all, are, any) agree to do something new. The (hum, corn, bees) enter the singing contest. The birds (now, try, them) to eat the pigs' food. The (loves, pigs, year) run the horse races. And the (seeds, liked, horses) try to make honey.

Oh, no! (This, What, Has) a mess! The bees don't sing (enjoy, first, well). They just buzz and buzz. The (enter, birds, year) can't eat the corn or the (their, seeds, cotton) candy. "I just want some seeds," (some, says, don't) Roger Robin. The pigs are very (tired, good, told). "I like to eat. I do (no, not, try) like to run," says Rick. The (where, horses, humming) are very mad. "We cannot make (buzz, sing, honey). Let the bees do it."

So (mess, at, the) animals return to the same events (they, try, them) do every year. This animal fair (is, see, will) the best ever!

Answer Key

Tom and his family lived in a busy city. There was always something to see (but, left, and) hear. Sometimes Tom wanted a secret (place, bike, good) of his own. He didn't have (an, a, up) place that was just for him.

(Just, Tom, His) made a plan. He climbed up (day, good, high) inside the garage. He came to (if, a, an) little peak in the roof where (his, like, they) dad stored bikes and tools. Here (them, was, were) the place for Tom!

It was (busy, knew, quiet). He could look out a little (student, window, comic) to see the city. He brought (his, he, who) favorite comic books, his monster truck, (it, or, and) a bag of chips to his (sister, secret, would) place. Tom decided to call his (owner, thought, secret) place "Study." If anyone asked where (him, the, he) was going, he would tell the (inside, find, truth). He would say he was going (to, see, for) "Study."

His big sister left him (busy, alone, roof) when he said he was going (at, the, to) "Study." Tom spent everyday after school (so, at, by) the "Study." His sister thought he (were, him, was) becoming a good student. Mother knew (better, sooner, place) though.

One day he climbed up (for, to, was) "Study." He found Mother sitting there (if, on, at) the floor.

"Mother, how did you (where, want, know) I come up here?" asked Tom.

"(Is, I, Me) like this place," said Mother. "Can (me, a, I) call this place 'Clean'? When I (soon, own, want) some time alone I will tell (becoming, everyone, wanting) I'm going to 'Clean!'"

Tom and his family lived in a busy city. There was always something to see (but, left, and) hear. Sometimes Tom wanted a secret (place, bike, good) of his own. He didn't have (an, a, up) place that was just for him.

(Just, Tom, His) made a plan. He climbed up (day, good, high) inside the garage. He came to (if, a, an) little peak in the roof where (his, like, they) dad stored bikes and tools. Here (them, was, were) the place for Tom!

It was (busy, knew, quiet). He could look out a little (student, window, comic) to see the city. He brought (his, he, who) favorite comic books, his monster truck, (it, or, and) a bag of chips to his (sister, secret, would) place. Tom decided to call his (owner, thought, secret) place "Study." If anyone asked where (him, the, he) was going, he would tell the (inside, find, truth). He would say he was going (to, see, for) "Study."

His big sister left him (busy, alone, roof) when he said he was going (at, the, to) "Study." Tom spent everyday after school (so, at, by) the "Study." His sister thought he (were, him, was) becoming a good student. Mother knew (better, sooner, place) though.

One day he climbed up (for, to, was) "Study." He found Mother sitting there (if, on, at) the floor.

"Mother, how did you (where, want, know) I come up here?" asked Tom.

(Is, I, Me) like this place," said Mother. "Can (me, a, I) call this place 'Clean'? When I (soon, own, want) some time alone I will tell (becoming, everyone, wanting) I'm going to 'Clean!'"

Answer Key

"Where is your fort, anyway? We've been walking forever. Are you (happy, sure, woods) we're not lost?" asked Andy.

"We're (no, ever, not) lost," replied Mark. "We just left (my, I, me) house five minutes ago!"

"I can't (to, went, see) your house from here. We're deep (on, in, to) the forest. I don't understand how (fall, him, you) know where we're going," complained Andy.

"(In, I've, We) lived here all my life. I've (walked, climbed, ladder) in these woods almost every day. (It, My, By) house is just back down the (fort, mine, path). Don't worry, Andy. We're almost there," (explained, understand, standing) Mark.

The path went deep into (very, come, the) woods and seemed well worn. Mark (do, did, it's) know the way, and soon the (house, stop, boys) were standing at the foot of (day, an, a) enormous oak tree.

"Wow!" exclaimed Andy. "(At, Me, I) didn't know the tree house was (far, up, you) so high! What if we fall (down, about, path)?"

"The ladder is very sturdy," said (read, Mark, dad). "My dad climbs it, and it (knows, first, holds) him. We're only half his size, (by, so, the) we won't fall. It's really neat (up, way, by) there. Come on and follow me (so, I, up) the ladder."

Mark climbed the ladder (these, easily, deeper) and was soon at the top. (Him, He, It's) turned around to see Andy slowly (climbing, sitting, exclaimed) up behind him. Andy stopped to (boys, live, look) down, closed his eyes, and started (at, to, won) climb again. Finally, Andy reached the (don't, time, top).

Andy stood up and looked around (an, worn, the) tree house.

Answer Key

"Cool!" Andy exclaimed. "There's (many, lots, know) of room up here! We have (should, nervous, plenty) of space to read our comic (books, from, woods)!" He didn't know why he was (on, me, so) nervous to visit the fort in (him, the, an) first place.

"Where is your fort, anyway? We've been walking forever. Are you (happy, sure, woods) we're not lost?" asked Andy.

"We're (no, ever, not) lost," replied Mark. "We just left (my, I, me) house five minutes ago!"

"I can't (to, went, see) your house from here. We're deep (on, in, to) the forest. I don't understand how (fall, him, you) know where we're going," complained Andy.

"(In, I've, We) lived here all my life. I've (walked, climbed, ladder) in these woods almost every day. (It, My, By) house is just back down the (fort, mine, path). Don't worry, Andy. We're almost there," (explained, understand, standing) Mark.

The path went deep into (very, come, the) woods and seemed well worn. Mark (do, did, it's) know the way, and soon the (house, stop, boys) were standing at the foot of (day, an, a) enormous oak tree.

"Wow!" exclaimed Andy. "(At, Me, I) didn't know the tree house was (far, up, you) so high! What if we fall (down, about, path)?"

"The ladder is very sturdy," said (read, Mark, dad). "My dad climbs it, and it (knows, first, holds) him. We're only half his size, (by, so, the) we won't fall. It's really neat (up, way, by) there. Come on and follow me (so, I, up) the ladder."

Mark climbed the ladder (these, easily, deeper) and was soon at the top. (Him, He, It's) turned around to see Andy slowly (climbing, sitting, exclaimed) up behind him. Andy stopped to (boys, live, look) down, closed his eyes, and started (at, to, won) climb again. Finally, Andy reached the (don't, time, top).

Andy stood up and looked around (an, worn, the) tree house.

"Cool!" Andy exclaimed. "There's (many, lots, know) of room up here! We have (should, nervous, plenty) of space to read our comic (books, from, woods)!" He didn't know why he was (on, me, so) nervous to visit the fort in (him, the, an) first place.