Directions:

_________ is responsible for more deaths in the United States each year than car crashes, alcohol, cocaine, heroin, AIDS, fires, murders, and suicides combined.

What does the media, including magazine ads, say about tobacco?

_________ ____________ are made from the dried, ground up leaves of the tobacco plant.

The three most popular types of tobacco include:
1. ____________ 2. ____________ 3. ____________

List at least 10 things that smoking has been linked to:
1. ____________ 2. ____________ 3. ____________ 4. ____________
5. ____________ 6. ____________ 7. ____________ 8. ____________
9. ____________ 10. ____________
More?

_________ ____________ is also known as chew or spit tobacco. It is made up of dried ground up leaves. It can be chewed or a pinch can be put between the lower lip and the teeth. The excess juice is usually spit out.

People who chew tobacco are just as likely to get addicted to the nicotine as smokers.

_________ is processed wet or dry tobacco powder that is flavored. It is used by taking a pinch of it and putting it on the inside of the cheek.

Spit tobacco has ________ times the nicotine than cigarettes have.

Tobacco products can lead to tooth decay as well as ________ ____________.

What % of adult smokers began smoking as teenagers? ________%