Book Orders:

This month's flyers are full of great books and there are many holiday books to choose from, Books from Scholastic make great gifts for the holiday! If you would like to order books as gifts for your child then you can place the order online using our classroom code PBG6R and then send me an email letting me know. This way when the order arrives I will not give the books to your child but rather make sure you get them so that they can be a surprise. Book orders are due by November 19th. The more books that are ordered the more points our class gets so that we can get books for our classroom.
