 - Vice President: Erica Ziebarth
 - Treasurer: Julie Eavenson
 - Webmaster: Shelly Hiner
 - Secretary: Mary Abajian

IV. New Business

- May 10th Band Aid update, Erica
 - More volunteers needed, but planning is complete.
 - Categories for cake judging will be Best Decorated, Most Creative, Best Theme, and Highest Amount Bid.
- Yard Sale Update, Shelly and Elisabeth
 - Although the last-minute location change was a challenge, having the event at the Dunkley’s parking lot worked very well.
 - About 15 families participated to earn funds for their band student’s individual expenses.
 - The Boosters earned $291.07 for general use.
- The membership discussed ways to increase parental involvement
 - Phone tree to remind parents of Booster meetings
 - Have sign—up sheets at the Band Banquet to “learn more”
 - Place a half-sheet informational flyer in the programs at the end-of-year concert
 - Combine meetings with other events where parents will be at the school
 - Have drawings with prizes
 - Ask other band directors and booster group leaders for recommendations and ideas
- The membership agreed it would be beneficial to compile an “Event Book” with basic information to make planning easier for the next year’s coordinator.

V. Ms. Brings’ Announcements

- The Band Calendar has not changed, details and a timeline for graduation participation will be announced soon.
- Requests for Funds:
 - $300 needed to defray costs for each incoming drum major to attend camp, total $900
