

Learning Targets:

“I Can...”

- ⑩ Share research from databases
- ⑩ Practice speaking & listening skills
- ⑩ Collaborate and contribute to a small group
- ⑩ Draft a piece of writing from a brainstorm

Tuesday November 5 & Wednesday November 6, 2019

Research Presentations

Meet with your group and finalize your Presentations and sign up for a spot. Make sure you have your Assignment Handout!

“100 Things I Love” Posters-

YOUR TASK- Return to your Brainstorming List and decide how you will display it on your poster. Must include all 100 Things!

LEARNING TARGETS:

Define and identify themes in a novel

- Read and discuss events in a large and small group
- Brainstorm ideas for a piece of Narrative Writing

Thursday November 7 & Friday
November 8, 2019

BELL RINGER- Take 1 of each Handout and write your name and class period on them both.

*The Crazy Horse Electric
Game* Chris Crutcher

QUOTE CATCHER

READING SCHEDULE

Quote Catcher
Notes

Theme a main idea or an underlying meaning of a literary work, which may be stated directly or indirectly. The author's message.

Quote
Catcher
Notes

Theme
#1

Identity-The process of how we determine who we are as we grow up. What things or talents do we use to create an image of how we see ourselves? How does this image change?

Quote
Catcher
Notes

Theme
#2

Fate vs. Freewill- The idea that our lives are truly ours to define, or whether they are determined and decided by events out of our control.

Quote
Catcher
Notes

Theme
#3

Biological Family vs. Chosen Family- How important is our biological family? Is it the main thing that shapes who we become? What types of support do we get from non-biological family structures?

Quote
Catcher
Notes

Theme #4

Societal Issues- 1980's societal issues; The War on Drugs, Runaways, and Gang
Violence

CHEG

Chapters 1 & 2 (p.1-25)

Chapter 1- Whole class reading (p. 1-14)

Chapter 2- Read Independently and gather direct evidence (p.15-25)

THINGS TO THINK ABOUT AS YOU READ:

- Who are the main characters in the 1st 2 chapters?
- What point of view is the story being told? Why do you think the author chose this?
- Which themes did you find direct evidence for?

“100 Things I Love” Posters Due-

YOUR TASK- Your Poster is Due today. Must include all 100 Things!

