

OPPORTUNITY FOR YOUR STUDENT

The CTE Advantage:

- Gain industry skills in high school
- Discover your strengths and passion
- Transition well into the workforce
- Applied skills for success in college

West Ada offers high school students 3 to 4 years of elective CTE classes in the following pathways

- Accounting
- Animal Science
- Auto Tech
- Broadcasting Tech
- Business Management
- CNA
- Collision Repair
- Communication
- Construction
- Culinary Arts
- Diesel Tech
- Digital Photography
- Early Childhood Educ.
- Education Assistant
- EMT
- Fire Service
- Graphic Communication
- Law Enforcement
- Plant Science
- Pharmacy Tech
- Pre-Engineering
- Programming
- Small Gas Engines
- Sports Medicine
- Web Design
- Welding

CTE Delivers

CTE courses provide a hands-on learning experience for students, which ultimately helps build industry knowledge and confidence. Students will have the opportunity to demonstrate their learned trade and build leadership skills. Most pathways offer ways to earn college credit, industry certifications or engage in local externships and career exploration opportunities.

Joint School District No. 2
West Ada Career Technical Education Office
1303 E. Central Drive Meridian, Idaho 83642

For more information, visit the West Ada CTE website at www.westada.org/CTE