Notes from Ms. Hymas:

- Slipper mornings for ISATs!
- Look for weekly +, -, x & ÷ fluency test.
- Thurs. & Fri. hmwk club at 8:30 a.m., outside door.
- I am so proud of students and their hard work in math. We have gotten through almost all of our 4th grade math curriculum. We will be spending the rest of the school year being able to retake assessments on those skills students are struggling with.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

Laney – 4/30

Some of what we are learning this week:

Spelling Words

No Spelling this week.

Vocabulary

We will review elements of fiction and text elements.

We will also review figurative language and parts of speech.

Grammar

We are working on being able to self and peer edit paragraphs/writing. Also, see above for more grammar focus this week.

Writing

We will focus on our Close Readers workbook for Journeys by practicing complete short answers.

Reading	Writing	Grammar	Math	Science	ID History
We begin our new novel, Lemonade Wars & continue Close Readers for comprehension & writing.	We will focus on short answers in our Close Reader workbooks for the week.	We are working to be able to self and peer edit our in-class papers.	We will review symmetry, area and perimeter and continue working with lines and angles.	We will correct our test students know their score. We will also finish up the flow of energy within a food web.	We will read Rachel's Journal in preparation for the Oregon Trail.
